ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

NASD DISCIPLINARY ACTION AGAINST WILSHIRE DISCOUNT SECURITIES, INC. AND GENE LESTER ROACH MODIFIED

The Commission has sustained NASD findings of violation against Wilshire Discount Securities, Inc., of Riverside, California, a member firm of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., and Gene Lester Roach, the firm's president. The NASD censured Wilshire Discount Securities and Roach fined them $5,000 jointly and severally, barred Roach from association with any member in any capacity, and fined Roach an additional $289,000.

The Commission found that Roach fraudulently misused proceeds of a securities offering by a discount brokerage operation. Roach invested over one-third of the proceeds in two airline stocks. The Commission stated that Roach's investment was a serious departure from the business plan outlined to investors. The Commission further found that Wilshire Discount Securities and Roach operated the firm on August 31, 1989, with a negative net capital, producing a deficiency of $33,371.

The Commission reduced the $289,000 fine imposed on Roach. Because the Commission set aside one of the NASD's findings relating to misuse of proceeds, the fine was set at $219,000. (Rel. 34-32561)

COMMISSION SUSTAINS NASD DISCIPLINARY ACTION AGAINST MICHAEL MARKOWSKI

The Commission has sustained the disciplinary action taken by the NASD against Michael Markowski, of Miami Beach, Florida. Markowski was the former chairman and chief executive officer of Global America, Inc., a former NASD member firm. The NASD censured Markowski, fined him $50,000, barred him from association with any member firm in a principal capacity, barred him from maintaining a debt or equity interest in any member firm, and suspended him from association with any member firm in all capacities for two years.

The Commission found that Markowski refused to give access to Global America's books and records in connection with an NASD examination, and failed to update his NASD registration to reflect his current address. In sustaining the sanctions imposed, the Commission reiterated that a member firm's or associated person's refusal to supply requested information seriously undermines the NASD's ability to carry out its self-regulatory functions, and warrants meaningful sanctions. (Rel. 34-32562)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

PENNY STOCK PROMOTERS ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on June 28 in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Final Judgments by Consent were entered against L. George Reynolds (Reynolds), Ivan Funk (Funk), and Gary Pflug (Pflug) enjoining them from future violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. Reynolds and Funk were also prohibited from acting as officers or directors of any company required to file periodic reports with the Commission. Disgorgement orders were entered against the three defendants, but were waived based on their demonstrated financial inability to pay.

The Commission's complaints alleged that Reynolds and Funk capitalized Cortex International, Inc. (Cortez), and RAM Industries, Inc. (RAM), two penny stock companies under their control, with assets of questionable value, and then arranged for market makers to sell the Cortez and RAM shares they controlled to public investors at inflated prices. According to the complaint, Pflug, a representative of one of the market makers, was responsible for distributing the bulk of the shares. Reynolds and Funk were also charged with preparing, or causing to be prepared, a materially false and misleading Form 20-F registration statement filed with the Commission. [SEC v. L. George Reynolds, et. al., USDC ND/TX, Civil Action No. 3:91-CV-1115-P] (LR-13690)

MARTIN SLOATE PERMANENTLY ENJOINED AND ORDERED TO DISGORGE AND PAY PENALTY

The Commission announced that on June 30 the Honorable Milton Pollack, of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, permanently enjoined Martin Byron Sloate of Greenwich, Connecticut, from violating the anti-fraud provisions of the securities laws. Judge Pollack made findings, after the conclusion of the Commission's case in chief, and testimony by Sloate, that Sloate, a registered representative, purchased the common stock of Shearson Loeb Rhoades in 1981 and the common stock of BankAmerica Corp. in 1986, while in possession of material, non-public information about these companies, and that Sloate knew, or should have known, that the information was obtained in breach of a fiduciary duty. Sloate, president and part-owner of Sloate, Weisman, Murray & Co., Inc., was tipped by Dr. Robert Willis, who had misappropriated the information from one of his patients, the wife of Wall Street executive, Sanford Weill. Sloate bought Shearson and BankAmerica stock for himself, and recommend it to his customers, who also bought.

As part of the agreed-upon relief, the Decision and Final Judgment orders Sloate to disgorge a total of $161,185.91, consisting of his profits from his Shearson and BankAmerica trading, profits of his customers to whom he recommended BankAmerica, Sloate's commission's and prejudgment interest. Sloate also agreed to pay a one-time civil penalty on his BankAmerica profits and profits of certain customers. [91 Civ.0322 (MP), U.S.D.C, S.D.N.Y] (LR-13691)

PERMANENT INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST GERARD A. SPATARO

The Commission announced that the Honorable David C. Bramlette III, U.S. District Judge for the Southern District of Mississippi, entered an order of Permanent Injunction and Other Relief against defendant Gerard A. Spataro on June 9, 1993, connection with an investment contract venture which the Commission alleged to be fraudulent. Spataro consented to the entry of the injunction without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations. The Commission's complaint, filed on March 10, 1993, alleged that from at least January 1990 through May 1991 defendant Spataro and others variously engaged in the sale of investment contracts consisting of interests in the purported imminent encashment or sale of worthless 1875 Peruvian bonds. The Peruvian government considers the bonds worthless. The Court's order permanently enjoins Spataro from future violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws and provides that disgorgement will be determined at a later date. [Civil Action No. 1:93-CV-94 Br R (U.S.D.C., S.D. MS)] (LR-13692)

SEC v. MARC GUNDERSON AND WILLIAM CRAIG HARRIGER

The Securities and Exchange Commission announced on July 2 that a complaint was filed in the United States District Court in Fort Worth, Texas charging Marc Gunderson and William Craig Harriger with violating the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws.

According to the complaint, from October 1990 to at least mid 1991, the defendants, through Mundiger International, Inc. (Mundiger) and Mira Golf International Inc. (Mira Golf), raised at least $1 million from approximately 30 investors through the offer and sales of common stock of Mundiger and Mira Golf, and fractional undivided working interests in oil and gas wells operated by Mundiger.

The complaint further alleges that the defendants made material misrepresentations and failed to disclose material facts in connection with the offer and sale of the securities, including, but not limited to: the risks and returns associated with the investments and the uses of investment funds. In addition, the defendants commingled the funds of both companies and misappropriated funds for unauthorized personal and business uses. [SEC v. Marc W. Gunderson and William Craig Harriger, C.A. No. 4-93-CV-440-Y, N.D. Tex.] (LR-13694)

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

JACK M. JOHNSTON SENTENCED

The Commission announced that on May 28 Jack M. Johnston (Johnston), of Englewood, Colorado, was sentenced to two years in a federal penitentiary. His sentence also included a $75,000 fine, three years post-imprisonment supervised release and 200 hours of community service. The sentence was based upon Johnston's guilty plea to two counts of securities fraud and one count of income tax fraud. The securities fraud related to his manipulative activities using a revived pre-1933 Utah shell corporation, Duralite Manufacturing Inc. and two blind pool offerings, Warowl Inc. and Sable Inc. The primary victim of Johnston's fraudulent activities was the pension fund for the British postal workers which lost several million dollars in these securities. Johnston used Jersey, Channel Islands accounts to hide his ill-gotten gains.

This conviction is the result of the combined efforts of the Colorado U.S. Attorney's Securities Fraud Task Force and the Serious Fraud Office, London, England. [U.S. v. Jack M. Johnson, 91-CR-277, USDC, District of Colorado] (LR-13693)
