ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST ARTHUR PORCARI

The Commission announced that on June 7 administrative proceedings pursuant the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 were instituted against Arthur J. Porcari for violations of certain antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, including Section 17(a) of the Securities Act, Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. Simultaneously with the institution of these proceedings, the Commission accepted Porcari's Offer of Settlement in which he consented, without admitting or denying the Commission's findings, to the entry of a cease and desist order against further violations of these statutory provisions. The Commission further ordered that, for a period of three years from the date of the institution of these proceedings, Porcari provide a copy of the order to certain parties including, for example, any public company which has retained Porcari to engage in financial public relations activities.

Among other things, the Commission found that in or about September 1989, Porcari was retained by The Cedar Group, Inc. to engage in financial public relations activities. The Commission further found that, in connection with his efforts to bring about a short squeeze in Cedar's securities, Porcari made predictions, without a reasonable basis, to registered representatives that Cedar's stock price would rise to specified levels within specified periods of time. Also, the Commission found that Porcari advised groups of registered representatives to purchase specified amounts of Cedar's securities simultaneously in order to raise the market price of those securities. (Rels. 33-7064; 34-34171)

CIVIL COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST THOMAS BANDYK

The Commission announced that on May 31 a civil injunctive action was filed against Thomas Frank Bandyk in the Western District of Michigan. The complaint seeks a permanent injunction against future violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, disgorgement, and prejudgment interest.

According to the complaint, from at least September 1989 to approximately May 1990, while working as a registered representative at the Grand Rapids, Michigan, branch office of a broker-dealer registered with the Commission, Bandyk conducted excessive, unsuitable, and unauthorized trading in his customers' accounts. In addition, according to the complaint, Bandyk misrepresented and failed to disclose several material facts to his customers, relating to, among other things, the significance of margin calls and the risks associated with trading on margin. The complaint further alleges that several of Bandyk's customers suffered substantial losses in their accounts as a result of Bandyk's management of their accounts. [SEC v. Thomas Frank Bandyk, Civil Action No. 1:94CV343, USDC, W.D. Michigan] (LR-14113)

COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST PRIME ONE PARTNERS, CORP., CAPITAL ASSET MANAGEMENT, AND MONARCH ASSOCIATES INTERNATIONAL, LTD.

The Commission announced that on May 20 it filed a complaint against Prime One Partners, Corp. (Prime One), Capital Asset Management (CAM), and Monarch Associates International, Ltd. (Monarch) for violating the antifraud provisions.

The Commission's complaint alleges that from at least February 1994 to the present, Prime One, CAM, and Monarch have engaged in a fraudulent scheme involving the offer and sale of "general partnership" interests in a prime bank investment program. The complaint further alleges that the defendants' offering materials represent that Prime One is offering 18,000 general partnership interests to investors, to raise a total of $9 million. Investors are told that their money will be used to purchase a 75% interest in an entity named "Sovereign House" for a "timely and profitable investment opportunity."

The complaint further alleges that the defendants and their agents market the prime bank investment program through investment seminars where it is revealed that the "profitable investment opportunity" referenced in the offering materials is a prime bank investment program, in which investors are promised exorbitant returns of 80% to 400%. [SEC v. Prime One Partners, Corp., Capital Asset Management, and Monarch Associates International, Ltd., Civil Action No. 94-3322 SVW, GHKx, C.D. Cal.] (LR-14114)

ELEVEN NAMED FOR ILLEGAL TRADING IN SECURITIES OF COLORADO PRIME CORP. AND DESOTO, INC.

The Commission announced today the filing of a civil action in New York on June 6 against Gary Howard Felsher (Felsher), Ihor G. Kupchynsky (Kupchynsky), Kim Gendron (Gendron), Richard D. Zipes (Zipes), James A. Weil (Weil), Ronald A. Leichtner (Leichtner), George Kupchynsky, Roman Kupchynsky, Jason Cohen (Cohen), Jon Turnquist (Turnquist) and FGH Investments (FGH), alleging violations of the antifraud and tender offer fraud provisions of the federal securities laws arising from trading in the securities of Colorado Prime Corp. (Colorado Prime) and DeSoto, Inc. (DeSoto).

The complaint alleges that Kupchynsky learned of a planned tender offer for Colorado Prime and communicated that information to Gendron, Felsher, FGH, Turnquist and Mark Puccini. Kupchynsky, Gendron, Felsher, FGH, Turnquist and Mark Puccini then purchased Colorado Prime securities while in possession of this information.

The complaint further alleges that Zipes misappropriated material, nonpublic information concerning a planned tender offer for DeSoto. Zipes allegedly tipped Kupchynsky, Leichtner, Felsher, FGH, Weil and/or Cohen. Kupchynsky allegedly tipped Gendron, George Kupchynsky, Roman Kupchynsky, Felsher, FGH, Leichtner and/or Cohen. Leichtner allegedly tipped Felsher, FGH, Weil and/or Cohen. Kupchynsky, Felsher, FGH, Gendron, Weil, George Kupchynsky, Roman Kupchynsky, Leichtner and Cohen then purchased DeSoto securities while in possession of the misappropriated information.

The complaint seeks permanent injunctions against future violations of the antifraud and tender offer provisions of the federal securities laws, disgorgement of illegal trading profits (including tippees' profits), plus prejudgment interest, and civil penalties. The litigation is pending. [SEC v. Felsher, et al., 94 Civ. 4150, LLS, USDC, SDNY] (LR-14115)
