RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

FINAL RULES

The Commission adopted amendments to rules under Section 12(f) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 concerning exchange extensions of unlisted trading privileges (UTP). The rules require exchanges to wait, before extending UTP to any listed IPO security, until the day following the commencement of the initial public offering of the security on the listing exchange. The rule amendments also require each exchange to have rules and oversight mechanisms in place for all securities traded on the exchange pursuant to UTP. In addition, the Commission amended and rescinded certain existing rules and forms to conform to the streamlined procedures for extensions of UTP pursuant to Section 12(f), as recently amended by the UTP Act of 1994. Publication of the amended rules is expected in the Federal Register during the week of April 24. (Rel. 34-35637)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

ORDER MAKING FINDINGS AND IMPOSING REMEDIAL SANCTIONS AGAINST GAIL GRISEUK

The Commission announced that it entered an Order Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions (Order) against Gail Griseuk (Griseuk) n/k/a as Gail Gentry of Glendale, Arizona. Griseuk, a registered representative, and an officer, director and owner of GAL International Investment Advisors, Inc. (GAL), a registered investment adviser, submitted, and the Commission accepted, an Offer of Settlement whereby she consented, without admitting or denying the findings, to entry of an Order finding that Griseuk willfully violated, and/or aided and abetted, and committed and/or caused violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws and GAL's books and records. and filing violations. MERIDIAN INVESTMENT COMPANY, PHILIP BROWN, II AND CRAIG MOYER ORDERED TO CEASE AND DESIST

The Commission has issued an Order Instituting Proceedings, Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions and Cease and Desist Order (Order) against Meridian Investment Company (MIC), Philip H. Brown, II (Brown) and Craig A. Moyer (Moyer). The Commission simultaneously accepted Offers of Settlement from MIC, Brown and Moyer, in which they consented to the Order without admitting or denying the Commission's findings.

The Order alleges that MIC invested approximately $4 million in client funds in a marina project near Erie, Pennsylvania. In connection with making the investment, the developer of the marina asserted to a former vice-president of MIC that, if MIC would fund construction of the marina, in return, the developer would endeavor to arrange through his political contacts the opportunity for MIC to manage $300 million in pension equity funds from the Pennsylvania State Employees Retirement System.

The Order alleges that MIC failed to disclose its economic self-interest in the investment, and that Brown and Moyer failed to take steps to fully ascertain the potential for conflict of interest between MIC and its clients and cause MIC to disclose its economic self-interest in the investment.

Pursuant to the Order, MIC, Brown and Moyer were ordered to cease and desist from violating Sections 206(1) and 206(2) of the investment Advisers Act of 1940 and MIC was ordered to comply with several undertakings. (IA-1484)

ADMINISTRATIVE AND CEASE DESIST PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST K. LAWRENCE NEILL

The Commission has issued an Order Instituting Proceedings against K. Lawrence Neill (Neill). The Order alleges that Neill aided and abetted and caused a fraudulent scheme by Meridian Investment Company (MIC).
The Order alleges that MIC invested approximately $4 million in client funds in a marina project near Erie, Pennsylvania. In connection with making the investment, the developer of the marina asserted to Neill, then a vice-president of MIC, that if MIC would fund construction of the marina, the developer would, in return, endeavor to arrange through his political contacts the opportunity for MIC to manage $300 million in pension equity funds from the Pennsylvania State Employees Retirement System. The Order alleges that Neill told MIC that investment in the marina by MIC might enhance the opportunity for MIC to obtain the state pension fund business.

The Order alleges that in making the investment in the marina, MIC failed to disclose its economic self-interest. The Order alleges that Neill played an active role in MIC's investment.

The Order alleges that in April 1993, Neill pled guilty to a felony count of accepting a gratuity to affect the operation of a pension plan managed by MIC, for which he received a four month prison term.

The Order seeks appropriate remedial action and the imposition of a cease and desist order. (Rel. IA-1485)

WILLIAM CLARK FOUND IN CIVIL CONTEMPT FOR FAILURE TO PAY DISGORGEMENT

The Commission announced that on April 13 the Honorable Barefoot Sanders, United States District Court Judge for the Northern District of Texas, Dallas Division, found defendant William B. Clark (Clark) in civil contempt of court as a result of Clark's failure to comply with the Court's disgorgement order. On November 17, 1994, Judge Sanders ordered Clark to disgorge $218,610.00, with interest, commencing with an annual payment of $50,000, to be paid by December 31, 1994. The Court found that Clark had failed to make the required payment and that Clark had made no attempt to comply with the terms of the disgorgement order. The Court further found that Clark had failed to meet his burden of production in establishing his defense that he is financially unable to comply with the disgorgement order. The Court ordered that should Clark fail to comply with the terms of the disgorgement order by July 3, 1995, Clark is to be incarcerated by the United States Marshall until such time as he complies with the order.

The Commission's complaint in this matter, which was filed on August 7, 1989, charged Clark and AMX Resources, Inc., a publicly-held corporation controlled by Clark, with violating the registration and antifraud provision of the federal securities laws. The complaint alleged that Clark, and two other AMX principals, engaged in a scheme to create and manipulate an over-the-counter market in the stock of AMX. [SEC v. AMX International, Inc., et al., USDC/ND/TX, 3:89-2006-H]) (LR-14474)
JIMMY DALE SWINK, SR. ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on April 13 a Final Judgment and Order of Permanent Injunction was entered by consent against Jimmy Dale Swink, Sr. (Swink) enjoining him from future violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. The Commission's complaint, filed September 10, 1991, alleged that Swink, a former principal of Swink & Co., a now defunct broker-dealer, purchased, but failed and refused to pay for, over $260 million in government securities as part of a free-riding scheme which resulted in losses of over $2.4 million to four broker-dealers. [SEC v. Jimmy Dale Swink, Sr., et al., LRC 91-547, USDC/ED AR] (LR-14475)

ROBERT HARMON CONVICTED OF MAIL FRAUD

The United States Attorney for the Northern District of California and the Securities and Exchange Commission announced that on April 18 Robert F. Harmon (Harmon), after entering a plea of guilty, was convicted of seven counts of mail fraud in connection with the offer and sale of unregistered securities through Coast Credit Corporation (Coast Credit) and Pacific Coast Development Corporation (PCDC). Harmon consented, without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint, to the entry of an order permanently enjoining him from violating the federal securities laws.

The indictment and the Commission's complaint alleged that Harmon made material misstatements and omissions to investors to induce them to purchase securities from Coast Credit and PCDC. From approximately November 1991 through March 1994, Coast Credit and PCDC conducted 17 different unregistered offerings of securities in the form of pooled interests in promissory notes. The issuers sold approximately $8.1 million worth of these securities to approximately 390 investors residing primarily in California. From approximately September 1992 through April 1993, Harmon was paid approximately $16,000 by Coast Credit to use his position as a loan agent with California Federal Bank to deceive investors in Coast Credit and PCDC into believing that the real estate projects were sound investments. Sentencing has been set for August 28, 1995. [SEC v. Robert F. Harmon, C95 1297, MHP; US v. Robert F. Harmon, CR 94 0539, MHP] (LR-14476)

CIVIL ACTION AGAINST JON FRIES, ET AL.

The Commission today announced the settlement of a pending civil action against Jon P. Fries (Fries), the former Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of F&C International, Inc. (F&C), a public company headquartered in Cincinnati, Ohio during the relevant period. Seven other F&C employees charged in the complaint previously settled with the Commission. Fries consented to the entry of a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Equitable Relief (Final Judgment), without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the Commission's complaint.

NEWS DIGEST, April 25, 1995
The complaint alleged violations of the antifraud and books and records provisions of the federal securities laws arising from a fraudulent scheme to materially overstate the earnings and inventory reported by F&C. The complaint further alleged that Fries engaged in insider trading.

The Final Judgment permanently enjoins Fries from future violations, orders Fries to disgorge $50,000, and bars Fries from serving as an officer or director of a public company. Additional disgorgement and penalties were waived based on Fries's demonstrated financial condition. [SEC v. Jon P. Fries, et al., USDC/SD Ohio, Civil Action No. C-1-94-664] (LR-14478; AAE Rel. 665)
