ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

COMMISSION ISSUES ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER AND CEASE-AND-DESIST ORDER AGAINST NORMAN L. YU & CO., INC. AND NORMAN L. YU

The Commission entered an Order pursuant to Sections 203(e), 203(f), and 203(k) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (Advisers Act), ordering Norman L. Yu & Co., Inc. (NLY) and its President, Norman L. Yu (Yu) of Newport Beach, California, to cease and desist from committing or causing violations of the antifraud provisions of Sections 206(1), 206(2) and 206(4) of the Advisers Act and Rule 206(4)-1(a)(5) thereunder and the books and records provisions of Sections 204 and 204A of the Advisers Act and Rule 204-2(a)(16) thereunder. NLY and Yu were also censured and were ordered to undertake certain remedial measures and to pay civil penalties totalling $150,000. NLY and Yu consented to the Order without admitting or denying the Commission's findings.

The Order finds that NLY distributed false and misleading advertising overstating its investment advisory performance history. From 1991 to March 1993, NLY distributed advertisements that overstated its performance history for the years 1985 through 1991 by as much as 23.9% NLY's false and misleading performance figures enabled NLY to receive favorable publicity and, as a result, substantial new investment advisory business.

NLY also failed to maintain its books and records in support of its performance history and failed to establish written policies and procedures to prevent the misuse of material non-public information. NLY's violations were aided and abetted and caused by Yu. (Rel. IA-1607)

COMMISSION AFFIRMS FINDING OF IMPROPER PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT AGAINST CHECKOSKY AND ALDRICH

The Commission affirmed its earlier finding that David J. Checkosky and Norman A. Aldrich engaged in improper professional conduct under Rule 2(e)(1)(ii) during audits of Savin Corporation in the 1980s. The United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit had remanded the proceeding for further explanation of the Commission's interpretation of Rule 2(e)(1)(ii), as well as its application to this proceeding.

The respondents had permitted Savin to capitalize costs associated with Savin's attempts to develop and manufacture its own line of copiers. The Commission explained that respondents were reckless in ignoring numerous indications that these costs were associated with research and development and, under Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, should have been expensed. These indications included unsuccessful prototype copiers that failed to meet Savin's functional and economic requirements; reports detailing a variety of problems with the machines; and abandonment of Savin's first attempt to develop the copiers. Respondents also edited a report from a Savin consultant to downplay problems with the machines' development.

The opinion also discusses the Commission's views of what constitutes improper professional conduct. In its original decision, the Commission suspended respondents from practice before it for a period of two years. Respondents, who did not seek a stay, completed serving their suspensions in 1994.

Commissioner Johnson dissented from the majority opinion. He expressed the view that simple negligence could not support a finding of improper professional conduct and suggested that the proceeding be dismissed in light of its age. Commissioner Wallman did not participate. (Rel. 34-38183; AAE Rel. 871)

ORDER ENTERED AGAINST CECIL SUTER ON ALLEGATIONS OF INSIDER TRADING

The Commission announced that on January 8 an Order was entered against Cecil H. Suter after the Commission alleged that he engaged in illegal insider trading while a director of the Israeli company I.I.S. Intelligent Information Systems Ltd. (IIS). Without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations, Suter consented to the entry of the Order which permanently enjoins him from future violations of the antifraud and insider trading reporting provisions of the federal securities laws. The Order requires Suter to disgorge his illegal profits of $79,875.00 plus prejudgment interest and to pay a civil penalty of $79,875.00. The complaint alleged that Suter sold 9,000 shares of IIS stock on the basis of inside information regarding IIS' low fourth quarter 1993 earnings; that Suter knew of the low quarterly earnings when he entered orders to sell the stock; and that the orders were executed at $18.50 per share on the day that Suter was in Israel to attend IIS' Board of Directors meeting which addressed the low quarterly earnings. When IIS publicly announced its low quarterly earnings six days later, the price of its stock dropped substantially and closed at $9 5/8. [SEC v. Cecil H. Suter, USDC, ND Ill., Civil Action No. 96-8449] (LR-15220)

SETTLEMENT OF INSIDER TRADING CHARGES AGAINST THOMAS ALGER AND WILLIAM MYLETT

On January 14, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York entered final judgments of permanent injunction and other equitable relief against Thomas Alger and William Mylett for violations of the federal securities laws in connection with trading in four AT&T acquisition targets -- Paradyne Corporation, NCR Corporation, Digital Microwave Corporation and Teradata Corporation -- while in possession of material, non-public information. Without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint, Thomas Alger consented to the entry of an injunction, disgorgement of his profits of $76,744.34, plus prejudgment interest, and a civil penalty of $76,744.34; and William Mylett consented to the entry of an injunction and a judgment requiring him to pay disgorgement of $369,434.52, plus prejudgment interest, but waiving payment of all but $68,000, based upon his demonstration of inability to pay.

The Commission's complaint alleges that after receiving non-public information from Charles Brumfield (who was at the time a Vice President in AT&T's Human Resources Department) about AT&T's acquisition plans regarding four target companies, Alger (Brumfield's friend and subordinate at AT&T) traded in the securities of Paradyne, tipped other defendants regarding AT&T's plans to acquire NCR, Digital, and Teradata, and arranged for several of his tippees to trade in the securities of the target companies for him and make payments of profits back to him, which Alger then divided between himself and Brumfield.

Alger, who cooperated with the Government in a related criminal case, pled guilty earlier to one count of conspiracy to commit securities fraud, wire fraud, and obstruction of agency proceedings and was sentenced to three years probation, 300 hours of community service, and a $1,000.00 fine.

The Commission's complaint alleges that after receiving non-public information from his friend Charles Brumfield about AT&T's acquisition plans regarding Paradyne, NCR, and Digital, Mylett traded in the securities of these three companies while in possession of non-public information and made payments back to Charles Brumfield from the profits he obtained.

Mylett earlier pled guilty in a related criminal case to one count of conspiracy to commit securities fraud, wire fraud, and obstruction of agency proceedings and was sentenced to five months in prison, five months home detention, and two years supervised release. Litigation with respect to the remaining defendants is continuing. For further information see LR-14706, LR-14779, LR-14956 and LR-15180. [SEC v. Brumfield, et al., Civ. Action No. 95-9283, JES, SDNY] (LR-15221)

CIVIL INJUNCTIVE ACTION FILED AGAINST JACOB ADONI AND VICTOR DOUENIAS

On January 21, the Commission filed a complaint in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey against Jacob Adoni (Adoni), formerly president, chief executive officer, and a director of The Simone Group, Inc. (Simone), and Victor Douenias (Douenias), the former operations manager at Simone. The complaint alleges that beginning in December 1992, Douenias, with Adoni's knowledge, engaged in the prebilling of invoices for goods which had not been shipped and used the customer sales invoices for the prebilled sales to obtain funds from one of the company's lenders. The complaint alleges that as a result of this conduct, Simone's books and records falsely reflected approximately $1.2 million of revenue for the fiscal year ended January 31, 1993, contrary to the requirements of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles and the company's accounting policies. The complaint further alleges that Simone submitted the materially false accounting records and financial statements to its independent auditors in connection with its year end audit.

The complaint seeks a permanent injunction and a civil penalty against Douenias for committing fraud, in violation of Exchange Act Section 10(b) and Rule 10b-5, and for falsifying Simone's books and records, in violation of Exchange Act Rule 13b2-1. The complaint seeks a permanent injunction and a civil penalty against Adoni for circumventing internal accounting controls, directly or indirectly falsifying books and records, and making or causing others to make false statements to auditors, in violation of Exchange Act Section 13(b)(5) and Rules 13b2-1 and 13b2-2. Without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint, Adoni consented to the entry of a final judgment permanently enjoining him from violating these provisions, and ordering him to pay a $37,500 civil penalty. [SEC v. Jacob Adoni and Victor Douenias, Civil Action No. 97-350] (LR-15223; AAE Rel. 872)
