ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

INSTITUTION AND SETTLEMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST DOROTHEA BOSSIO, MICHAEL IMBRIALE AND ROCCO LEONE

The Commission issued an Order Instituting Public Proceedings pursuant to Section 21C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, Making Findings, and Imposing Sanctions with regard to Dorothea Bossio, Michael Imbriale, and Rocco Leone. Simultaneously with the institution of public proceedings, the Commission accepted the offers of settlement submitted by Bossio, Imbriale and Leone. Each of the settling respondents, without admitting or denying the findings, consented to the issuance of the Order, the entry of the findings contained in the Order, and the imposition of sanctions.

Bossio, Leone, and Imbriale are former employees of the Peltz Food Division (PFD) of Chipwich, Inc. In its Order, the Commission found that from at least February 1989 through May 1992 Bossio, Imbriale, and Leone implemented a fraudulent scheme devised by Chipwich's former CEO to overstate PFD's inventory. In addition, the Commission found that Bossio aided Chipwich's former CEO in concealing his misappropriation of corporate funds for personal use. The Commission ordered and Bossio, Imbriale, and Leone agreed to cease and desist from committing or causing any violation or future violation of the applicable antifraud, reporting, record-keeping, and internal control provisions of the securities laws. (Rel. 34-38555; AAE Rel. 909)

CIVIL COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST BRADLEY SIMMONS AND AMERICAN ENERGY GROUP, LTD.

The Commission announced that on April 24 it filed a civil complaint in the United States District Court, Houston Division, against Bradley J. Simmons and American Energy Group, Ltd. (American Energy), an oil and gas company located in Simonton, Texas. The complaint alleges both defendants violated the antifraud and reporting provisions of the federal securities laws. The Commission seeks entry of permanent injunctions and imposition of civil penalties against both defendants and the issuance of an order barring Simmons from acting as an officer or director of any public company.

According to the complaint, the defendants engaged in a scheme to defraud investors by manipulating the price of American Energy's stock. The complaint further alleges that the defendants issued press releases and filed reports with the Commission which contained misrepresentations of material fact and omissions of facts necessary to make the statements made not misleading concerning the company's assets and business prospects, including oil and gas prospects in Pakistan. As a result of the false and misleading information alleged, the price of American Energy's stock is said to have increased from approximately $.80 to over $8.00 a share during a five-week period in 1995, and to have remained at artificially high levels through 1995 and much of 1996. [SEC v. Bradley J. Simmons and American Energy Group, Ltd., H-97-1384, USDC SD/TX] (LR-15353)

GARY DIVALL AND PAUL MAGNUSON ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on April 10 the United States District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin entered an order of permanent injunction against Gary DiVall and Paul Magnuson, enjoining them from future violations of the antifraud, books and records and reporting provisions of the federal securities laws. DiVall and Magnuson each consented to the entry of the Order without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint.

The Commission's complaint, filed on August 2, 1996, alleged that between 1988 and 1992, as general partners of three public partnerships (the DiVall Funds), DiVall and Magnuson made misrepresentations and omissions of material fact to investors and the Funds' auditors concerning their personal use of over $2.6 million that they had misappropriated from the DiVall Funds. The complaint also alleged that DiVall and Magnuson failed to keep adequate books and records reflecting their use of those investor funds and, as controlling persons of the DiVall Funds, caused the filing of false and misleading periodic reports with the Commission. [SEC v. Gary J. DiVall et al., W.D. Wis., Civil Action No. 96-C-0634-S] (LR-15354)

COURT ORDERS PERMANENT INJUNCTION, DISGORGEMENT AND OTHER RELIEF IN PRIME BANK SCHEME ON THE INTERNET

The Commission announced the entry of final judgments against Gene Block, d/b/a Block Consulting Services, and Robert T. Riley, d/b/a The Roberts Group, enjoining them from violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act, Sections 15(a) and 10(b) of the Exchange Act, and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, and ordering them to pay disgorgement of $500 each plus prejudgment interest. Additionally, Block was ordered to pay a civil penalty of $5,000. Based upon Riley's financial condition, no civil penalty was imposed. Block and Riley consented to the entry of the final judgments without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint.

The Commission's complaint alleges that Block and Riley were offering and selling unregistered and fraudulent investment programs advertisements on the Internet by promising, in some cases, returns as high as 200% to 420% annually. Block and Riley falsely represented that investors' funds would be invested in risk-free, high-yield programs and that the initial investment was guaranteed against loss because a "Prime Bank Guarantee" would be used as security for the transaction. Block and Riley also falsely represented that the investors' funds would be doubled by buying and selling "Bank Instruments." [SEC v. Gene Block, Individually and d/b/a Block Consulting Services, Renate Haag, Individually and d/b/a Haag + Partner, and Robert T. Riley, Individually and d/b/a The Roberts Group, Civil Action No. 95-11748RCL, D. Mass.] (LR-15355)
