RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

RULES IMPLEMENTING AMENDMENTS TO THE INVESTMENT ADVISERS ACT

The Commission has issued a release adopting rules and rule amendments under the Investment Advisers Act to implement certain provisions of the Investment Advisers Supervision Coordination Act (Coordination Act). The rules and rule amendments establish the process by which advisers that are currently registered with the Commission determine their status as Commission- or state-registered advisers after July 8, 1997, the effective date of the Coordination Act; amend Form ADV to require advisers to report annually to the Commission information relevant to their status as Commission-registered advisers; relieve advisers of the burden of having frequently to register and then de-register with the Commission as a result of changes in the amount of their assets under management; provide certain exemptions from the prohibition on registration with the Commission; define certain terms used in the Coordination Act; and clarify how advisers should count clients for purposes of both the new national de minimis exemption from state regulation and the federal de minimis exemption from Commission registration. FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, contact Catherine M. Saadeh or Cynthia G. Pugh at (202) 942-0691. (Rel. IA-1633)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION ISSUED IN SEC v. STEPHEN MURPHY

On May 13, the Honorable James M. Ideman, U.S. District Judge for the Central District of California, issued an Order of preliminary injunction freezing the assets of Stephen J. Murphy (Murphy). The Order also requires Murphy to provide an accounting and prohibits him from destroying documents.

The complaint, filed April 21, 1997, alleges that Murphy violated Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder by fraudulently offering and selling limited partnership interests in an enterprise that was to acquire, own and operate automated teller machines. Murphy misrepresented his identity by using the aliases "Jack Davis," "Gregg Davis," and "Mike Fox." He also failed to disclose the entry of, and the terms of, a 1994 judgment entered against him in an earlier Commission action (SEC v. American Capital Investments, et al., Civil Case No. CV-93-5280 CBM, JRx, C.D. Cal.; LR-14185). Murphy also failed to disclose that in 1994 the Commission had revoked his registration as an investment adviser and barred him from association with any broker, dealer, municipal securities dealer, investment company or investment adviser. [SEC v. Stephen J. Murphy, Civil Action No. CV 97-2719 JMI, CWx, C.D. Cal.] (LR-15366)

COMMISSION SEEKS TO COMPEL NYCAL CORPORATION TO FILE ITS DELINQUENT PERIODIC REPORTS

On May 15, the Commission filed a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia against Nycal Corporation (Nycal). The complaint alleges that Nycal, a Dallas, Texas-based mineral exploration and development corporation, failed to make available to the investing public current and accurate information about its financial condition and results of operation through the filing of periodic reports with the Commission as required by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act). Specifically, the complaint alleges that Nycal has not filed three of its annual reports on Form 10-K for the fiscal years ended June 30, 1996, 1995 and 1994, eight quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarters ended December 31, 1996, September 30, 1996, March 31, 1996, December 31, 1995, September 30, 1995, March 31, 1995, December 31, 1994 and September 30, 1994 and nine notifications of late filing with respect to its delinquent reports. The Commission seeks to compel Nycal to file its delinquent periodic reports and to enjoin Nycal from further violations of Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 12b-25, 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder. Simultaneously with the filing of the Commission's complaint, Nycal consented to the entry of a final judgment granting the relief sought by the Commission and admitted that it had not filed the periodic reports as described above. [SEC v. Nycal Corporation, Case No. 97-CV-01077, D.D.C.] (LR-15367)

COMMISSION OBTAINS TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER, ASSET FREEZE AGAINST OPTIONS GROUP TRADING COMPANY AND CHANNA WICK

The Commission obtained an Order from the U.S. District Court in Chicago, Illinois today temporarily restraining Options Group Trading Company (Options Group), and Channa Wickremeratne a/k/a Channa Wick (Wick) from violating the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws. The Court also froze all of the assets of Options Group and Wick. A preliminary injunction hearing is scheduled for May 27, 1997.

Since at least April 1996, Options Group and Wick have obtained at least $259,000 directly from at least six investors while failing to disclose Wick's criminal history, true educational and employment history and lack of affiliation with the Chicago Board Options Exchange. Additionally, Wick and the Options Group represented that investors money would be pooled with other investors' money, including Nike Corporation's $60 million employee pension fund, to trade options and futures contracts. Neither Wick nor the Options Group have any affiliation with Nike Corporation. [SEC v. Channa Wickremeratne a/k/a Channa Wick and Options Group Trading Company, USDC, ND Ill., No. 97-C 3558, Honorable Harry Leinenweber] (LR-15368)

The requested order would expand the scope of the prior order to let each Fund engage in transactions involving U.S. government securities, certain other high quality debt securities and reverse repurchase agreements with such affiliated banks, except no Fund would engage in such transactions with a bank that controls or advises that Fund.
