ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

BAR ENTERED AGAINST TERESA FERNANDEZ

The Commission instituted public administrative proceedings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act) against Teresa V. Fernandez (Fernandez), sole owner of Wharton Investments, Inc., formerly an investment adviser, pursuant to Sections 203(e) and 203(f) of the Investment Advisers Act. Simultaneously with the institution of the proceeding, the Commission accepted Fernandez' offer of settlement, under which Fernandez consented, without admitting or denying the findings, to the entry of the Findings and Order of the Commission (Order). The Order bars Fernandez from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, investment company or municipal securities dealer.

The Commission found that Fernandez was enjoined by consent, without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint, on November 21, 1996 by the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York from violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, and Sections 206(1), 206(2), and 206(4) of the Advisers Act. The complaint alleged that Fernandez misappropriated at least $64,036,612 of her advisory clients' funds by submitting falsified Letters of Authorization directing that broker-dealers transfer clients funds to accounts under Fernandez' own control and that Fernandez distributed the misappropriated funds to various persons and entities, including her relatives and other advisory clients. (Rel. IA-1650)

JOHN BRIDGES, JR.

The Commission entered an Order Instituting Public Administrative Proceedings against John L. Bridges (Bridges), formerly a registered representative associated with American Investment Services, Inc. (AIS), based upon his criminal conviction on four counts of wire fraud involving brokerage accounts. Pursuant to a plea agreement with the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey, Bridges pled guilty to four counts of wire fraud committed in furtherance of his scheme to defraud four AIS customers. Bridges' judgment of conviction was entered by the court on October 23, 1996. He was sentenced to twenty-seven months imprisonment on each of the four counts, to be served concurrently, and three years of supervised release. Bridges was also ordered to pay a special assessment of $200 and to make partial restitution in the amount of $15,000 [18 U.S.C. §1343]; (U.S. v. John L. Bridges, Jr., 96-00321-001, D. N.J. 1996). (Rel. 34-38957)

DEFAULT JUDGMENT ENTERED AGAINST JOZEF A.C. VAN STRATUM

On August 12, the Honorable Richard C. Freeman, United States District Judge for the Northern District of Georgia, entered a Default Judgment against Jozef A.C. van Stratum (van Stratum) for failing to respond to a complaint filed by the Commission seeking a permanent injunction, disgorgement and civil penalties. An order of permanent injunction was entered against van Stratum enjoining him from further violations of Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. Van Stratum was also ordered to pay disgorgement in the amount of $36,789.67, representing losses avoided and prejudgment interest. Van Stratum was further ordered to pay a civil penalty under the Insider Trading Sanctions Act in the amount of $28,000 within 45 days of the date of the judgment.

The Commission's complaint, filed on August 9, 1995, alleged that van Stratum, a former officer and director of Crown Anderson, Inc. (Crown), sold Crown stock while in possession of material non-public information concerning the performance of Crown. Van Stratum was the managing director of Montair Anderson, b.v. (Montair), a wholly owned subsidiary of Crown. The Commission contends that at least by June 15, 1993, van Stratum was aware that the revenues of the Montair subsidiary had decreased materially. Between June 28, 1993 and July 2, 1993, prior to the public disclosure of this information, van Stratum sold 25,000 shares of Crown stock. On July 22, 1993, when Crown announced that the company anticipated a loss for the quarter ending June 30, 1993 attributable to losses suffered by the Montair subsidiary during the quarter, the price of Crown stock fell by 16 percent. For more information, see Litigation Release 14599 (August 10, 1995). [SEC v. Jozef A.C. van Stratum, Civil Action No. 1:95-CV-2007-RCF, USDC, N.D. Ga.] (LR-15450)

PERMANENT INJUNCTIONS ENTERED AGAINST W. RALPH WILLS AND PROFINANCIAL ADVISORS, INC.

On July 25, 1997, the Honorable Clarence Cooper, United States District Judge for the Northern District of Georgia, entered an Order of Permanent Injunction And Other Relief As To W. Ralph Wills III (Wills) And ProFinancial Advisors, Inc. (ProFinancial), an Investment Adviser registered with the Commission. The Order enjoins Wills and ProFinancial from future violations of Section 204 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (Adviser's Act) and Rule 204-1 thereunder; Section 206(4) of the Adviser's Act and Rule 206(4)-2(a)(5) thereunder; Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933; and Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. Wills and ProFinancial were further ordered to pay disgorgement in the amount of $947,950, representing the amount of ill-gotten gains acquired by the defendants from the scheme and prejudgment interest thereon. Payment of the disgorgement and prejudgment interest was waived based upon sworn representations made by Wills and ProFinancial that they were financially unable to pay the disgorgement.

Wills and ProFinancial both consented to the relief without admitting or denying the allegations set forth in a complaint filed by the Commission on September 23, 1996. In its complaint, the Commission alleged that Wills, through ProFinancial, violated the antifraud provisions of the securities laws by offering and selling investment contracts in early 1994 which were part of a prime bank scheme. Wills and ProFinancial obtained funds from investors by misrepresenting or failing to disclose material facts in connection with the sale of prime bank notes. For more information, see Litigation Release 15152 (November 7, 1996). [SEC v. W. Ralph Wills, III and ProFinancial Advisors, Inc., Civil Action No. 1:96-CV-2472-CC, USDC, N.D. Ga.] (LR-15451)

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND ASSET FREEZE ENTERED AGAINST RICHARD WARREN AND RICHARD WARREN & ASSOCIATES, INC.

The Commission announced today that on August 19 Judge William A. Ingram granted a temporary restraining order against Richard Warren & Associates, Inc. (RWA) and Richard E. Warren (Warren), formerly located in Fremont, California and now located in London, United Kingdom. The Order also froze their assets and ordered an accounting and repatriation of assets. The Commission's complaint alleged that between February and October 1996, RWA and Warren raised approximately $8 million from at least 48 investors nationwide through two fraudulent offerings of securities. In the first offering, RWA and Warren falsely represented that investor proceeds would be used to trade "Prime Bank Debenture instruments" and generate a return of 15 percent within 30 days or 180 percent annually. In the second offering, RWA and Warren falsely represented that investor proceeds would be deposited in an escrow account for trading debentures, would generate a return of approximately 1,600 percent within 66 days, and would not be released from the escrow account unless RWA provided a "Major World Bank Guarantee" for the funds. Warren converted in excess of $2 million for payments to salesman and for personal use and used approximately $1.2 million to make false "profit" payments to investors. The remaining funds were diverted to other entities and were apparently not used to buy or sell debentures, as represented.

In the temporary restraining order, Judge Ingram also ordered the named relief defendant, Citadel Enterprises, Ltd. (Citadel), to freeze and repatriate assets derived from Warren's fraud. Citadel, an Isle of Man entity with offices in London, United Kingdom, received more than $2 million of investor proceeds from Warren. The staff was informed that Citadel planned to transfer $700,000 to Warren on or after August 19. The staff recommended the emergency action to prevent Warren, RWA and Citadel from transferring or liquidating any funds. [SEC v. Richard Warren & Associates, Inc. et. al., Civil Action No. C-97-3050MMC, USDC NDCA/San Francisco Div.] (LR-15455)
