COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

SEC ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF DAVID NELSON AS DEPUTY REGIONAL DIRECTOR

Chairman Levitt today announced the selection of David P. Nelson as Deputy Regional Director in the Commission's Southeast Regional Office (SERO). The region comprises offices in Miami, Florida and Atlanta, Georgia, and has both enforcement and regulatory programs in an eight state area, and in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. As Deputy Regional Director, Mr. Nelson will assist the Regional Director in overseeing these programs in the SERO, as well as coordinating these functions with those in the Atlanta District Office.

Mr. Nelson initially joined the Commission staff in 1984 as an Attorney in the Division of Enforcement in Washington, D.C., following a period of time in private practice in Philadelphia. In 1986, he was assigned as a Special Assistant United States Attorney in the Securities and Commodities Fraud Unit of the U.S. Attorney's Office in the Southern District of New York. From 1986 to 1990, he worked on a variety of complex criminal cases involving insider trading and other financial fraud. Among those matters was the case involving Michael Milken and Drexel Burnham Lambert. Mr. Nelson returned to the Division of Enforcement as a Branch Chief in 1990 and transferred to the SERO in 1992. During his tenure at the SERO, Mr. Nelson has served in several positions of increasing responsibility in the enforcement program. For the past two years, he has worked as the Assistant Regional Director (Enforcement) and the Associate Regional Director of the SERO. In this latter capacity, he has directed the enforcement, regulation and litigation programs in that Office.

Mr. Nelson graduated from Princeton University in 1979 and received his J.D. Degree from the Georgetown University Law Center in 1983. (Press Rel. 97-73)
