ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

COMMISSION SETTLES ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING AGAINST RICHARDT-ALYN & CO AND ITS PRINCIPALS, RICHARD AND ALAN FEINBERG

The Commission issued an Order Making Findings, Imposing Remedial Sanctions and Ordering Respondents to Cease And Desist. The Order Instituting Proceedings alleges that, between January 1994 and March 1995, Richardt-Alyn & Co., Richard B. Feinberg and Alan S. Feinberg violated the federal securities laws by executing approximately 184 trades in the over-the-counter market, primarily on behalf of registered broker-dealer customers, and misrepresenting the price at which the trades were executed, thereby obtaining approximately $18,000 in undisclosed trading profits.

Administrative Law Judge Carol Fox Foelak issued an initial decision in this matter dated September 30, 1999. Subsequently, both sides filed Petitions for Review before the Commission. The Commission's Order sets aside the initial decision; censures the Respondents and orders them to cease and desist from violating Section 17(a)(2) and (3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 17(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 17a-3 thereunder; orders Richard-Alyn to comply with an undertaking to repay undisclosed profits totaling $17,477; and orders Richard and Alan Feinberg each to pay a civil money penalty in the amount of $5,000. (Rel. 34-37727)

NICK SKANSI AND DAVID SKANSI FOUND LIABLE FOR INSIDER TRADING IN THE SECURITIES OF FREEPORT-MCMORAN OIL AND GAS ROYALTY TRUST

The Commission announced that on August 18, 2000, the Honorable Ivan L. R. Lemelle, U.S. District Court Judge for the Eastern District of Louisiana, entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction against Nick L. Skansi and David J. Skansi, both residents of New Orleans, Louisiana. The Final Judgment was entered following a jury trial on January 24-27, 2000, at which Nick L. Skansi and David J. Skansi were found to have engaged in insider trading in the securities of Freeport-McMoRan Oil and Gas Royalty Trust (FMR) when they purchased FMR securities prior to FMR's announcement in June 1994 of a large oil discovery in the Gulf of Mexico in which FMR held a royalty interest. The jury also found that Chok-Tat Tan, Jody L. Lafont and George S. Pharis were not liable for insider trading when they purchased FMR securities in June 1994.

Immediately before trial commenced, the Commission reached a settlement with Nick A. Skansi, who consented to a final judgment that permanently enjoined him from violating the antifraud provisions of the Exchange Act, and ordered him to pay disgorgement of illicit profits, prejudgment interest, and civil penalties of $37,498.51. Previously, the Commission had announced that it had reached settlements with the other defendants in this action, David R. Pfister, Richard G. Pfister, Ty Bartel, Jeffrey J. Jandegian and Randolph R. Blackburn.

The Commission expresses its appreciation to the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. for its substantial assistance in the investigation of this matter. [SEC v. Nick L. Skansi, et al., Civil Action No. 98-1001, USDC, E.D.La.] (LR-16675)

SEC AND U.S ATTORNEY CHARGE FORMER INTEL EMPLOYEE AND OTHERS WITH INSIDER TRADING

On September 1, the Commission and the United States Attorney for the Central District of California announced the filing of civil and criminal actions against a former Intel Corporation employee, his cousin and the cousin's business partner for illegal insider trading. The defendants traded in the securities of Ancor Communications Inc., a Minnesota computer technology company, before the December 7, 1999 public announcement that Ancor was entering into two significant business transactions with Intel. The Commission’s complaint alleges that the defendants realized profits in excess of $232,000.

According to the Commission’s complaint, in the summer and fall of 1999, within months of first being employed at Intel, Brian E. Pridgeon, a product marketing engineer, learned that the company planned to enter into an agreement with Ancor in which the two companies would collaborate to develop Intel’s Spider chip for use in Ancor’s products and Intel would purchase $14 million in Ancor stock. Prior to the public announcement of those transactions, Pridgeon used that information to purchase 5,600 shares of Ancor stock, ultimately realizing approximately $137,000 in unlawful insider trading profits.

The Commission’s complaint further alleges that Pridgeon, of San Jose, California, also tipped his cousin, Stephon A. Carradine, who, in turn, tipped his business partner Craig L. Smith. Smith and Carradine, both of Long Beach, California, then used the inside information to purchase $15,000 in options that would have been worthless unless the price of Ancor’s stock rose approximately $12.00 over the following two weeks. The day of the public announcement of Ancor’s deal with Intel, Smith sold the options, realizing $95,000 in unlawful insider trading profits. Carradine and Smith own a Century 21 – Coastline Realty office in Long, Beach, California.

Valerie Caproni, the Regional Director for the Commission’s Pacific Regional Office, stated, “These actions affirm the Commission’s commitment to ferreting out and prosecuting members of the high-tech community who engage in insider trading. These actions should serve as notice to those in the high-tech industry and elsewhere that, where appropriate, we will continue to work together with the criminal authorities to punish those who participate in insider trading and thereby compromise the fairness of the securities market.”

“These cases represent the latest in a series of collaborative efforts between the SEC and this office,” said United States Attorney Alejandro N. Mayorkas. “Those who engage in insider trading and any other forms of market manipulation are put on notice that federal law enforcement is committed to protecting the integrity of the trading markets which now impact nearly every American.”

The Commission is seeking an injunction against the defendants from future violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws, disgorgement of their insider trading profits and civil penalties of up to three times their trading profits. The criminal action charges Pridgeon, Smith and Carradine with conspiracy and two counts of securities fraud, charges which carry a penalty of up to 25 years in federal prison.

The Commission acknowledges the assistance provided by the Chicago Board Options Exchange. For further information, please contact Diana K. Tani, Assistant Regional Director, Enforcement, SEC at (323) 965-3991 or Michele Wein Layne, Deputy Assistant Regional Director, Enforcement, SEC at (323) 965-3850 and Assistant United States Attorney Paul Watford at (213) 894-2417. ORDER ENTERED AGAINST TEXAS CORPORATION COMPELLING PRODUCTION OF CORPORATE DOCUMENTS

The Securities and Exchange Commission announced that an Order requiring compliance with a subpoena duces tecum was entered recently against Texas Titan Resources, Inc. (Titan) in SEC v. Texas Titan Resources, Inc., Civil Action No. 00C4801, N.D. Illinois, Eastern Division. Titan initially refused to produce certain corporate documents called for by the Commission's subpoena based on a presumed right against compelled self-incrimination under the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

On August 17, 2000, the Honorable George W. Lindberg of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois entered the Order requiring Texas Titan Resources, Inc. to comply with the Commission's subpoena. Specifically, Judge Lindberg held that Titan and its current and former officers, directors or employees could not refuse to comply with a subpoena for corporate documents on Fifth Amendment grounds, even though Titan has been dissolved.
