SEC and CFTC Announce Participants for Joint Meetings on Regulation Harmonization

First meeting to take place at the CFTC on September 2, 2009 and the second meeting to take place at the SEC on September 3, 2009

Washington, DC – The Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) today announced the participants for the two agencies' joint meetings to seek input from the public on harmonization of market regulation. The SEC and the CFTC expect these meetings will provide the agencies valuable insight on any recommendations for changes to their statutes and regulations that would eliminate regulatory differences with respect to similar types of financial instruments.

See attachment for Meeting Agendas and Participants.

The meetings will be open to the public and will be webcast via the internet. In addition, audio of the September 2, 2009, meeting will be available via a listen-only conference call. The record will remain open for public comment until September 14, 2009.
