I spoke to Harry this morning. He is available at 10 tomorrow. He has a lunch appointment so he has to leave by 11:30.

I told him I would confirm.

Are all available?

I think John would be a good person. John, what is your schedule for next week? We need about an hour and a half of your time to speak to an informant (we'll tell him he has an hour but he'll go over). How about Monday or Tuesday at 1? Mike, can you get Personal Privacy to participate as well.

Let me call him back and give him say two or three dates. Are there dates that are two or three dates that work for you?

Is there anyone in particular you would want to pull in from enforcement whose schedule we should try to coordinate?

I'm just trying to find a way to get to a date we can give him with confidence.
