4. I wish to add the following facts:

We gave a big sigh of relief when we read + heard that a government agency called SEC said that there was no fraud. Since we were so sure that all was well if our government had checked we went directly into Madoff Invest. Co. from Avebino + Bienes.

Interesting we were examined by IRS in 2006 + they were interested in the Madoff records. I have every single piece of paper from the beginning. They said all was well.

4. I wish to add the following facts: My widowed mother had a small amount of money invested with Avellino and Bienes. When they were shut down by the SEC in 1992 she invested the proceeds from Avellino and Bienes with Madoff because of the SEC's favorable report. She kept a copy of the Wall Street Journal article reporting the SEC's giving Madoff a clean bill of health in her files. When I joined her Madoff account in 1994, my husband referred to that report as a key part of our research. The original WSJ article remains in our files.

4. I wish to add the following facts:

To the best of my recollection:
I began my account with A+B in about 1990. I received a letter in 1992 stating A+B was closing and returning my money with the gains I had made. The letter explained the SEC had found A+B + their firm of no wrong doing, but they were being fined for an error in registration. I remember discussing this with my parents as an article also came out in a newspaper about the situation. A few months later I reinvested with Mr. Madoff as did all of my family. Mr. Madoff called my parents & we knew he had worked with A+B, so we considered it to be safe since the SEC investigated A+B. Our family knew of Mr. Madoff from an elderly aunt who was a frequent visitor of Summy Oaks in the Catskills
