Self-Regulatory Organizations; Order Granting Application to Strike from Listing and Registration; The New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (AT&T Corp. 7 ½% Notes (due June 1, 2006), 7 ¾% Notes (due March 1, 2007), 6.000% Notes (due March 15, 2009), 6.50% Notes (due March 15, 2013), 8.35% Debentures (due January 15, 2025), and 6.500% Notes (due March 15, 2029)) File No. 1-01105

December 29, 2005

On December 20, 2005, the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. (“NYSE” or “Exchange”) filed an application with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”), pursuant to Section 12(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”)¹ and Rule 12d2-2(c) thereunder,² to strike the 7 ½% Notes (due June 1, 2006), 7 ¾% Notes (due March 1, 2007), 6.000% Notes (due March 15, 2009), 6.50% Notes (due March 15, 2013), 8.35% Debentures (due January 15, 2025), and 6.500% Notes (due March 15, 2029) (collectively “Securities”) of AT&T Corp. (“Issuer”), from listing and registration on NYSE.

NYSE Rule 499 states that securities admitted to the list may be suspended from dealings or removed from the list at any time. Section 802.01D of the Listed Company Manual states that the Exchange is not limited by any specific criteria in making delisting decisions. Rather, the Exchange may make an appraisal of, and determine on an individual basis, the suitability for continued listing of an issue in light of all pertinent facts whenever it deems such action appropriate, even though a security meets or fails to meet any enumerated criteria.

² 17 CFR 240.12d2-2(c).

In the opinion of NYSE, the Securities are no longer suitable for continued listing and trading on NYSE. Information supplied by the Issuer or taken from other sources that the Exchange believed to be reliable indicated that as of November 18, 2005, the Issuer merged with SBC Communications Inc. The merger became effect on November 18, 2005. The common stock of the Issuer was suspended before the opening of business on November 21, 2005. A Form 25 was filed with the Commission to deregister the common stock of the Issuer on November 21, 2005. In view of the fact that the common stock of the Issuer was suspended from trading on the Exchange on November 21, 2005, following the aforementioned merger, the Exchange also considered the appropriateness of the continued listing of the Securities and determined that the Securities are no longer suitable for continued listing on the Exchange.

On November 2, 2005, the Exchange received a letter from the Issuer advising that it formally waived its right to a hearing regarding the delisting of the Securities. On November 18, 2005, NYSE determined that the Securities should be suspended from trading before the opening of the trading session on November 21, 2005, and directed the preparation and filing of this application with the Commission for the removal of the Securities from listing and registration on the Exchange. The Issuer did not file a request for review of the Exchange's determination to delist the Securities within the required time period.

The Commission, having considered the facts stated in the application and having due regard for the public interest and protection of investors, orders that the NYSE's application be, and it hereby is, granted, effective at the opening of business on December 30, 2005.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.³
