Part III

Securities and Exchange Commission

17 CFR Parts 200, 201, 202 et al.
Regional Office Reorganization; Final Rule
Regional Office Reorganization

AGENCY: Securities and Exchange Commission.

ACTION: Final rule amendments.

SUMMARY: The Securities and Exchange Commission is amending its rules to reflect the reorganization of its former five regional and six district offices into eleven regional offices reporting directly to SEC Headquarters. The Commission also is correcting addresses appearing in its rules.

DATES: Effective Date: June 5, 2008.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Stephen Jung, (202) 551–5162, Assistant General Counsel, Office of the General Counsel; Michael Bloise, (202) 551–5116, Senior Counsel, Office of the General Counsel, Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street, NE., Washington, DC 20549.

I. Discussion

On March 30, 2007, the Chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission announced a new structure for the Commission’s regional and district offices and changes to the designation of the offices and their chief supervisory personnel.1 These changes, which became effective on April 1, 2007, were intended to facilitate the regional offices’ cooperation with state and federal regulators, law enforcement agencies and consumer groups at the local level to better protect investors no matter where they live or with whom they invest.

As a result of the reorganization, the former structure, in which there were six district offices reporting to five regional offices that, in turn, reported to Commission headquarters, was replaced by a new structure in which there are eleven regional offices, each reporting directly to Commission headquarters. Each regional office is now designated by the name of the city in which it is located, as follows: Atlanta Regional Office, Boston Regional Office, Chicago Regional Office, Denver Regional Office, Fort Worth Regional Office, Los Angeles Regional Office, Miami Regional Office, New York Regional Office, Philadelphia Regional Office, Salt Lake City Regional Office, and San Francisco Regional Office.

Pursuant to the reorganization, the term “District Administrator” was discontinued, and the heads of all of the regional offices are now called “Regional Directors.” The term “Regional Director” also replaced the term “District Administrator” in the titles of subordinate managers in the regional offices. The regional offices report, on enforcement matters, to the Deputy Director of the Division of Enforcement who is responsible for regional office enforcement matters and, on examination matters, to the Director of the Office of Compliance Inspections and Examinations. The Director of Regional Office Operations continues to oversee regional office operational and management issues.

To reflect this reorganization, the Commission is amending certain of its rules to delete the term “district office” or replace it with the term “regional office,” as appropriate. Likewise, the Commission is amending certain of its rules to delete the term “District Administrator” or replace it with the term “Regional Director,” as appropriate. The Commission also is removing rules that describe the duties of District Administrators and delegate functions to these persons. In addition, because a number of Commission offices have relocated since the adoption of the current rules, the Commission is amending its rules to update the addresses that appear in its rules for all of its offices.

The rule amendments also update the geographic allocation of examination and enforcement jurisdiction to each Regional Director. This geographic allocation also determines where brokers, dealers, transfer agents, clearing agents, registered securities associations, investment advisers, and others must file reports that are required to be filed in regional offices. These registrants should note changes in the geographic allocation resulting from the reorganization.

II. Administrative Procedure Act and Other Administrative Laws

The Commission has determined that these amendments to its rules relate solely to the agency’s organization, procedure, or practice. Therefore, the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (“APA”) regarding notice of proposed rulemaking and opportunity for public participation are not applicable.2 For the same reason, and because these amendments do not substantially affect the rights or obligations of non-agency parties, the provisions of the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act are not applicable.3 In addition, the provisions of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, which apply only when notice and comment are required by the APA or other law, are not applicable.4 Finally, these amendments do not contain any collection of information requirements as defined by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, as amended.5

III. Cost-Benefit Analysis

The Commission is sensitive to the costs and benefits imposed by its rules. The rule amendments the Commission is adopting today update the Commission’s rules to reflect the reorganization of the Commission’s regional offices. The amendments also update addresses for the Commission’s offices that appear in the Commission’s rules.

The Commission believes that the reorganization of the Commission’s regional offices will produce the benefit of facilitating the offices’ cooperation with state and federal regulators, law enforcement agencies and consumer groups at the local level to better protect investors no matter where they live or with whom they invest. The reorganization also should help eliminate the potential for redundancy and overlap in the Commission’s inspection and enforcement procedures. Updating addresses in the Commission’s rules will help registrants, investors, and others avoid misdirecting their communications with the Commission. The Commission does not believe that the rule amendments will impose any costs on non-agency parties, or that if there are any such costs, they are negligible.

IV. Consideration of Burden on Competition

Section 23(a)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”) requires the Commission, in making rules pursuant to any provision of the Exchange Act, to consider among other matters the impact any such rule would have on competition. The Commission does not believe that the amendments that the Commission is adopting today will have any impact on competition.
