THE ACT

American International Group, Inc. (“AIG”), et al., filed an application on February 10, 2006, requesting temporary and permanent orders under section 9(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (“Act”) exempting applicants and any other company of which AIG is or hereafter becomes an affiliated person (together, “Covered Persons”) from section 9(a) of the Act solely with respect to a securities-related injunction entered by the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York on or about February 21, 2006
(the “AIG Injunction”).

On February 21, 2006, the Commission issued a temporary conditional order exempting Covered Persons from section 9(a) of the Act until the Commission took final action on the application for a permanent order or, if earlier, August 21, 2006 (Investment Company Act Release No. 27227). On August 18, 2006 the Commission issued a temporary conditional order exempting Covered Persons from section 9(a) of the Act until the Commission took final action on the application for a permanent order or, if

The Commission has determined that it requires additional time to consider the issuance of a permanent order under section 9(c) of the Act.

Accordingly,
IT IS ORDERED, under section 9(c) of the Act, that the temporary conditional order is extended until the date on which the Commission takes final action on the application for a permanent order exempting applicants from section 9(a) with respect to the AIG Injunction or, if earlier, August 21, 2007.

By the Commission.
