

On May 6, 2011, pursuant to a consent filed by UBS, the Honorable William J. Martini, United States District Court Judge for the District of New Jersey in Securities and Exchange Commission v. UBS Financial Services Inc. (Case No. 11-cv-02539-WJM) entered a final judgment against UBS (the "Final Judgment"). The Final Judgment enjoined UBS from violating, directly or indirectly, Exchange Act Section 15(c)(1)(A) and required that UBS pay disgorgement plus prejudgment interest and civil money penalties in the total amount of $47,207,180.

The safe harbor provisions of Section 27A(c) of the Securities Act and Section 21E(c) of the Exchange Act are not available for any forward looking statement that is “made with respect to the business or operations of an issuer, if the issuer . . . during the 3-year period preceding the date on which the statement was first made . . . has been made the subject of a judicial or administrative decree or order arising out of a governmental action that (I) prohibits future violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws; (II) requires that the issuer cease and desist from violating the antifraud provisions of the securities laws; or (III) determines that the issuer violated the antifraud provisions of the securities laws[.]” Section 27A(b)(1)(A)(ii) of the Securities Act and Section 21E(b)(1)(A)(ii) of the Exchange Act. The disqualifications may be waived “to the extent otherwise specifically provided by rule, regulation, or order of the
Based on the representations set forth in UBS’s April 13, 2011 request, the Commission has determined that, under the circumstances, the request for a waiver of the disqualifications resulting from the entry of the Final Judgment is appropriate and should be granted.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED, pursuant to Section 27A(b) of the Securities Act and Section 21E(b) of the Exchange Act, that a waiver from the disqualification provisions of Section 27A(b)(1)(A)(ii) of the Securities Act and Section 21E(b)(1)(A)(ii) of the Exchange Act as to UBS and any current or future affiliates resulting from the Final Judgment is hereby granted.

By the Commission.
