5. RIGHTS ATTACHING TO SHARES

- 5.1 Subject to any special rights conferred on the holders of any share or class of shares, any share in the Company may be issued with or have attached thereto such preferred, deferred, qualified or other special rights or such restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital or otherwise, as the Company may by resolution determine or, if there has not been any such determination or so far as the same shall not make specific provision, as the Board may determine.

For giving effect to any such sale the Board may authorise some person to transfer the share sold to the purchaser thereof. The purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the share and he shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings relating to the sale.
- 7. CALLS ON SHARES
- 7.1 The Board may make such calls as it thinks fit upon the Shareholders (for the avoidance of doubt excluding the Company in respect of any nil or partly paid shares held by the Company as Treasury Shares) in respect of any moneys (whether in respect of nominal value or premium) unpaid on the shares allotted to or held by such Shareholders and each Shareholder shall (subject to the Company serving upon him at least fourteen (14) days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company at the time or times and place so specified the amount called on his shares. A call may be revoked or postponed as the Board may determine.

- 7.2 If a call is not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the Shareholder may at the discretion of the Board be liable to pay the Company interest on the amount of such call at such rate as the Board may determine, from the date when such call was payable up to the actual date of payment.
- 7.3 Any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable on allotment or at any date fixed by or in accordance with such terms of issue, whether on account of the nominal amount of the share or by way of premium, shall for all the purposes of these Bye-Laws be deemed to be a call duly made, notified and payable on the date on which, by the terms of issue, the same becomes payable and, in case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of these Bye-Laws as to payment of interest, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
- 7.4 The Board may differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment of such calls.
- 7.5 The joint holders of a share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay all calls and any interest, costs and expenses in respect thereof.
- 7.6 The Company may accept from any Shareholder the whole or a part of the amount remaining unpaid on any shares held by him, although no part of that amount has been called up.

8. FORFEITURE OF SHARES

- 8.1 If any Shareholder fails to pay, on the day appointed for payment thereof, any call in respect of any share allotted to or held by such Shareholder, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as the call remains unpaid, direct the Secretary to forward such Shareholder a notice in writing in the form set out in Appendix I, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, or in such other form as the Board may accept.
- 8.2 If the requirements of such notice are not complied with, any such share may at any time thereafter before the payment of such call and the interest due in respect thereof be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect, and such share shall thereupon become the property of the Company and may be disposed of as the Board shall determine. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the disposal may take place by sale, repurchase, redemption or any other method of disposal permitted by and consistent with these Bye-laws and the Companies Acts.
- 8.3 A Shareholder whose share or shares have been so forfeited shall, notwithstanding such forfeiture, be liable to pay to the Company all calls owing on such share or shares at the time of the forfeiture, together with all interest due thereon and any costs and expenses incurred by the Company in connection therewith. Such forfeiture shall include any dividend that is declared in respect of the forfeited shares, but not actually paid before the forfeiture, provided that the Board may, without being under any obligation to do so, resolve to apply the amount of the unpaid dividend against the amount of the call, interest, costs and expenses owing in relation to the forfeited shares.
- 8.4 The Board may accept the surrender of any shares which it is in a position to forfeit on such terms and conditions as may be agreed. Subject to those terms and conditions, a surrendered share shall be treated as if it had been forfeited.

9. SHARE CERTIFICATES

- 9.1 Every Shareholder shall be entitled to a certificate under the Seal or bearing the signature (or a facsimile thereof) of a Director or the Secretary or a person expressly authorised to sign specifying the number and, where appropriate, the class of shares held by such Shareholder and whether the same are fully paid up and, if not, specifying the amount paid on such shares. The Board may by resolution determine, either generally or in a particular case, that any or all signatures on certificates may be printed thereon or affixed by mechanical means.

- 9.2 The Company shall be under no obligation to complete and deliver a share certificate unless specifically called upon to do so by the person to whom the shares have been allotted.
- 9.3 If any share certificate shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Board to have been worn out, lost, mislaid, or destroyed the Board may cause a new certificate to be issued and request an indemnity for the lost certificate if it sees fit.

10. FRACTIONAL SHARES

- 10.1 The Company may issue its shares in fractional denominations and deal with such fractions to the same extent as its whole shares and shares in fractional denominations shall have in proportion to the respective fractions represented thereby all of the rights of whole shares including (but without limiting the generality of the foregoing) the right to vote, to receive dividends and distributions and to participate in a winding-up.

REGISTRATION OF SHARES

11. REGISTERS OF SHAREHOLDERS AND BENEFICIAL OWNERS

- 11.1 The Board shall cause to be kept in one or more books a Register of Shareholders and a Register of Beneficial Owners and shall enter therein the respective particulars required by the Companies Acts.
- 11.2 The Register of Shareholders shall be open to inspection without charge at the Registered Office of the Company on every business day, subject to such reasonable restrictions as the Board may impose, so that not less than two (2) hours in each business day be allowed for inspection. The Register of Shareholders may, after notice has been given in accordance with the Companies Acts, be closed for any time or times not exceeding in the whole thirty (30) days in each year.

12. REGISTERED HOLDER ABSOLUTE OWNER

The Company shall be entitled to treat the registered holder of any share as the absolute owner thereof and accordingly shall not be bound to recognise any equitable claim or other claim to, or interest in, such share on the part of any other person.

13. TRANSFER OF REGISTERED SHARES

- 13.1 Subject to the Companies Acts, an instrument of transfer shall be in writing in the form set out in Appendix II, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, or in such other form as the Board may accept. For the avoidance of doubt no instrument of transfer shall be required on the redemption of a share or on the purchase by the Company of a share.
- 13.2 Such instrument of transfer shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and, where a share is not fully paid, the transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the same has been registered as having been transferred to the transferee in the Register of Shareholders.
- 13.3 The joint holders of any share may transfer such share to one or more of such joint holders, and the surviving holder or holders of any share previously held by them jointly with a deceased Shareholder may transfer any such share to the executors or administrators of such deceased Shareholder.
- 13.4 The Board may in its absolute discretion and without assigning any reason therefor refuse to register the transfer of a share.
- 13.5 The Board may also refuse to register a transfer unless:-
- (a) the instrument of transfer is duly stamped (if required by law) and lodged with the Company accompanied by the certificate in respect of the shares to which it relates and by such other

- evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer;
- (b) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of share; or
 - (c) applicable consents, authorisations and permissions of any governmental body or agency in Bermuda have been obtained.
- 13.6 If the Board refuses to register a transfer of any share the Secretary shall, within three (3) months after the date on which the transfer was lodged with the Company, send to the transferor and transferee notice of the refusal.
- 13.7 No fee shall be charged by the Company for registering any transfer, probate, letters of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney, distringas or stop notice, order of court or other instrument relating to or affecting the title to any share, or otherwise making an entry in the Register relating to any share.
- 13.8 Notwithstanding anything contained in these Bye-laws, the Directors shall not decline to register any transfer of shares, nor may they suspend registration thereof where such transfer is executed by any bank or other person to whom such shares have been charged by way of security, or by any nominee or agent of such bank or person, and whether the transfer is effected for the purpose of perfecting any mortgage or charge of such shares or pursuant to the sale of such shares under such mortgage or charge, and a certificate signed by any officer of such bank or by such person that such shares were so mortgaged or charged and the transfer was so executed shall be conclusive evidence of such facts.
- 14. TRANSMISSION OF REGISTERED SHARES
- 14.1 In the case of the death of a Shareholder, the survivor or survivors where the deceased Shareholder was a joint holder, and the legal personal representatives of the deceased Shareholder where the deceased Shareholder was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the deceased Shareholder's interest in the shares. Nothing herein contained shall release the estate of a deceased holder (whether joint or several) from any liability in respect of any share which had been held by such deceased Shareholder jointly with other persons or solely. Subject to the Companies Acts, for the purpose of this Bye-law, legal personal representative means the executor or administrator of a deceased Shareholder or such other person as the Board may, in its absolute discretion, decide as being properly authorised to deal with the shares of a deceased Shareholder.
- 14.2 Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death of any Shareholder or otherwise by operation of applicable laws, may be registered as a Shareholder upon such evidence as the Board may deem sufficient or may elect to nominate some person to be registered as a transferee of such share, and in such case the person becoming entitled shall execute in favour of such nominee an instrument of transfer in writing in the form set out in Appendix III, or as near thereto as circumstances admit, or in such other form as the Board may accept. On the presentation of the foregoing materials to the Board, accompanied by such evidence as the Board may require to prove the title of the transferor, the transferee shall be registered as a Shareholder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board shall, in any case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by that Shareholder before such Shareholder's death or bankruptcy, as the case may be.
- 14.3 A person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death of a Shareholder or otherwise by operation of applicable law shall (upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time be required by the Board as to his entitlement) be entitled to receive and may give a discharge for any dividends or other monies payable in respect of the share, but he shall not be entitled in respect of the share to receive notices of, or to attend or vote at, general meetings of the Company or, save as aforesaid, to exercise in respect of the share any of the rights or privileges of a Shareholder until he shall have become registered as the holder thereof. The Board may at any time give notice requiring such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and, if the notice is not complied with within sixty (60) days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends and other monies payable in respect of the shares until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

- 14.4 Where two or more persons are registered as joint holders of a share or shares, then in the event of the death of any joint holder or holders the remaining joint holder or holders shall be absolutely entitled to such share or shares and the Company shall recognise no claim in respect of the estate of any joint holder except in the case of the last survivor of such joint holders.

15. UNTRACEABLE SHAREHOLDERS

- 15.1 The Company shall be entitled to sell at the best price reasonably obtainable at the time of sale the Shares of a Shareholder or the Shares to which a person is entitled by virtue of the transmission on death or bankruptcy etc. provided that:-

- (a) during a period of seven (7) years no dividend in respect of such Shares has been claimed and all share certificates for Shares issued under a capitalisation issue have been returned to the Company unclaimed provided that at least two (2) payments of dividends and/or capitalisation issues have taken place in relation to the shares in question during such seven (7) year period;
- (b) on expiry of the said period of seven (7) years the Company shall have published an advertisement in an Appointed Newspaper and also in a newspaper circulating in the area in which the last known address of the Shareholder or the address at which service of notice upon such Shareholder or other person may be effected in accordance with these Bye-laws, giving notice of its intention to sell the said Shares; and
- (c) during the said period of seven (7) years and the period of three (3) months following the publication of the said advertisement the Company shall have received indication neither of the whereabouts nor of the existence of such Shareholder or person.

- 15.2 To give effect to any such sale the Company may appoint any person to execute as transferor an instrument of transfer of the said Shares and such instrument of transfer shall be as effective as if it had been executed by the registered holder of or person entitled by transmission to such shares and the title of the transferee shall not be affected by any irregularity. The net proceeds of sale shall belong to the Company which shall be obliged to account to the former Shareholder or other person previously entitled as aforesaid for an amount equal to such proceeds and shall enter the name of such former Shareholder or other person in the books of the Company as a creditor for such amount. No trust shall be created in respect of the debt, no interest shall be payable in respect of the same and the Company shall not be required to account for any money earned on the net proceeds, which may be employed in the business of the Company or invested in such investments as the Directors may from time to time think fit.

ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

16. POWER TO ALTER CAPITAL

- 16.1 The Company may if authorised by resolution of the Shareholders:-

- (a) increase its authorised share capital by such amount to be divided into shares of such par value as the resolution of the Shareholders shall prescribe;
- (b) divide its shares into several classes and attach thereto respectively any preferential, deferred, qualified or special rights, privileges or conditions;
- (c) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger par value than its existing shares;

- (d) sub-divide its shares or any of them into shares of smaller par value than is fixed by its Memorandum, so, however, that in the sub-division the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived;
 - (e) make provision for the issue and allotment of shares which do not carry any voting rights;
 - (f) cancel shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution in that behalf, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled;
 - (g) change the currency denomination of its share capital; and
 - (h) subject to the Companies Acts, reduce its issued share capital, capital redemption reserve fund, share premium or contributed surplus account in any manner.
- 16.2 Where, on any alteration or reduction of share capital, fractions of shares or some other difficulty would arise, the Board may deal with or resolve the same in such manner as it thinks fit.

17. VARIATION OF RIGHTS ATTACHING TO SHARES

- 17.1 If, at any time, the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, and subject to the Companies Acts, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound-up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of seventy-five per cent (75%) of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a resolution passed by a majority of the votes cast at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class at which meeting the necessary quorum shall be two (2) persons at least holding or representing by proxy one-third (1/3) of the issued shares of the class. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking pari passu therewith.

DIVIDENDS AND CAPITALISATION

18. DIVIDENDS

- 18.1 The Board may, subject to these Bye-laws and in accordance with the Companies Acts, declare a dividend or distributions out of contributed surplus to be paid to the Shareholders, in proportion to the number of shares held by them and according to their rights and interests including such interim dividends as appear to the Board to be justified by the position of the Company. The Board, in its discretion, may determine that such dividend may be paid in cash or shall be satisfied, subject to Bye-Law 21, in paying up in full shares in the Company to be issued to the Shareholders credited as fully paid or partly paid or partly in one way and partly the other.
- 18.2 The Board may fix any date as the record date for determining the Shareholders entitled to receive any dividend or distribution.
- 18.3 The Company may pay dividends or distributions in proportion to the amount paid up on each share where a larger amount is paid up on some shares than on others.
- 18.4 No dividend, distribution or other monies payable by the Company on or in respect of any share shall bear interest against the Company.
- 18.5 The Board may deduct from any dividend, distribution or other monies payable to a Shareholder by the Company on or in respect of any shares all sums of money (if any) presently payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise in respect of shares of the Company.

18.6 All unclaimed dividends or distribution out of contributed surplus may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Directors for the benefit of the Company as they shall think fit, until the same is claimed and so that the Company shall not thereby be constituted as a trustee in respect thereof. Any dividend or distribution out of contributed surplus unclaimed after a period of seven (7) years from the date for payment of such dividend or distribution shall automatically be forfeited and revert to the Company.

18.7 If either:-

(a) a payment for a dividend or other sum payable in respect of a share sent by the Company to the person entitled to it in accordance with these Bye-laws is left uncashed or is returned to the Company and, after reasonable enquiries, the Company is unable to establish any new address or, with respect to a payment to be made by a funds transfer system, a new account, for that person; or

(b) such a payment is left uncashed or returned to the Company on two (2) consecutive occasions, then the Company shall not be obliged to send any dividends or other sums payable in respect of that share to that person until he notifies the Company of an address or, where the payment is to be made by a funds transfer system, details of the account, to be used for the purpose.

18.8 The Board may also, in addition to its other powers, direct payment or satisfaction of any dividend or distribution out of contributed surplus wholly or in part by the distribution of specific assets, and in particular of paid-up shares or debentures of any other company, and where any difficulty arises in regard to such distribution or dividend, the Board may settle it as it thinks expedient, and in particular, may authorise any person to sell and transfer any fractions or may ignore fractions altogether, and may fix the value for distribution or dividend purposes of any such specific assets and may determine that cash payments shall be made to any Shareholders upon the footing of the values so fixed in order to secure equality of distribution and may vest any such specific assets in trustees as may seem expedient to the Board, provided that such dividend or distribution may not be satisfied by the distribution of any partly paid shares or debentures of any company without the sanction of a resolution of the Company.

19. POWER TO SET ASIDE PROFITS

19.1 The Board may, before declaring a dividend or distribution out of contributed surplus, set aside out of the surplus or profits of the Company, such amount as it thinks proper as a reserve to be used to meet contingencies or for equalising dividends or for any other purpose. The Board may also carry forward any sums which it may think prudent not to distribute without placing the same to reserve.

20. METHOD OF PAYMENT

20.1 Any dividend, interest, or other moneys payable in cash in respect of the shares may be paid by cheque or draft sent through the post directed to the Shareholder at such Shareholder's address in the Register of Shareholders, or to such person and to such address as the holder may in writing direct.

20.2 In the case of joint holders of shares, any dividend, interest or other moneys payable in cash in respect of shares may be paid by cheque or draft sent through the post directed to the address of the holder first named in the Register of Shareholders, or to such person and to such address as the joint holders may in writing direct. If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any shares any one can give an effectual receipt for any dividend paid in respect of such shares.

20.3 The Board may deduct from the dividends or distributions payable to any Shareholder all moneys due from such Shareholder to the Company on account of calls or otherwise.

21. CAPITALISATION

- 21.1 The Board may capitalise any amount for the time being standing to the credit of any of the Company's share premium or other reserve accounts or to the credit of the profit and loss account or otherwise available for distribution by applying such amount in paying up unissued shares, debentures or other obligations of the Company to be allotted and distributed credited as fully paid amongst Shareholders or partly in one way and partly in the other provided that for the purposes of this Bye-law, a share premium account may be applied only in paying up of unissued shares to be issued to such Shareholder credited as fully paid.
- 21.2 The Board may capitalise any amount for the time being standing to the credit of a reserve account or amounts otherwise available for dividend or distribution by applying such amounts in paying up in full, partly or nil paid shares of those Shareholders who would have been entitled to such amounts if they were distributed by way of dividend or distribution.
- 21.3 Where any difficulty arises in regard to any distribution under this Bye-Law, the Board may settle the same as it thinks expedient and, in particular, may authorise any person to sell and transfer any fractions or may resolve that the distribution should be as nearly as may be practicable in the correct proportion but not exactly so or may ignore fractions altogether, and may determine that cash payments should be made to any Shareholders in order to adjust the rights of all parties, as may seem expedient to the Board. The Board may appoint any person to sign on behalf of the persons entitled to participate in the distribution any contract necessary or desirable for giving effect thereto and such appointment shall be effective and binding upon the Shareholders.
