

December 20, 2005

I applaud your recommendation for relief for small publicly held firms. The amount of money spent to document and test for compliance can make the difference between win or lose for the shareholders.

Billie Spell

Director, Business Compliance