§ 7002  Change of Location

Sec. 1.2. In the manner permitted by law, the Board of Directors or the registered agent may change the address of the Corporation's registered office in the State of Delaware and the Board of Directors may make, revoke or change the designation of the registered agent.

ARTICLE II

Meetings of Stockholders

§ 7003  Annual Meeting

Sec. 2.1. The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Corporation for the election of directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting shall be held at the registered office of the Corporation, or at such other place within or without the State of Delaware as the Board of Directors may fix, at three o'clock p.m., on the fifteenth day of January of each year, commencing with the year 1970, but if such a date is a legal holiday, then on the next succeeding business day.

§ 7004  Special Meetings

Sec. 2.2. Special meetings of stockholders, unless otherwise prescribed by law, may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board, by the President or by order of the Board of Directors. Special meetings of stockholders prescribed by law for the election of directors shall be called by the Board of Directors, the President, or the Secretary whenever required to do so pursuant to the applicable law. Special meetings of stockholders shall be held at such place within or without the State of Delaware as shall be designated in the notice of meeting.

§ 7005  List of Stockholders Entitled to Vote

Sec. 2.3. The officer who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, or cause to be prepared and made, at least ten days before every meeting of stockholders, a complete list, based upon NASD Manual the record date for such meeting determined pursuant to Section 5.8, of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order and showing the address of each stockholder and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least ten days prior to the meeting either at a place within the city where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting or, if such place shall not be specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held. The list shall also be produced and kept at the time and place of the meeting during the whole time thereof, and may be inspected by any stockholder who is present.

The stock ledger shall be the only evidence as to who are the stockholders entitled (i) to examine the stock ledger, the list of stockholders entitled to vote at any meeting, or the books of the Corporation, or (ii) to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of stockholders.

§ 7006 Notice of Meetings

Sec. 2.4. Written notice of each annual and special meeting of stockholders other than any meeting the giving of notice of which is otherwise prescribed by law, stating the place, date and hour of the meeting, and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes thereof, shall be delivered or mailed in writing at least ten days but not more than fifty days before such meeting, to each stockholder required or permitted to take any action or entitled to vote thereat. Sec. 2.5. Any meeting of stockholders may be adjourned to another time, place, and the Corporation may transact at any adjourned meeting any business which might have been transacted at the original meeting. Notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place thereof are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken unless (a) any adjournment or series of adjournments cause the original meeting to be adjourned for more than thirty days after the date originally fixed therefor, or (b) a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting. If notice of an adjourned meeting is given, such notice shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the adjourned meeting in the manner prescribed in Section 2.4 for the giving of notice of meetings.

Each stockholder entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders or to express consent or dissent to corporate action in writing without a meeting may authorize another person or persons to act for him by proxy, provided that no proxy shall be voted or acted upon after three years from its date, unless the proxy provides for a longer period. To be acceptable any such bonds of, or guaranteed by, a state or political subdivision thereof must be listed in the first or second rating by

NASD Manual
Any securities in which the Clearing Fund is invested by the corporation and any securities deposited by Clearing Members in lieu of paying cash to the Clearing Fund shall be held by the corporation or for its account by bank or trust company, and shall at all times be kept separate and apart from other securities held by the corporation in such manner as to be readily identifiable as held in trust for purposes of the Clearing Fund. Such securities may be pledged by the corporation to secure obligations payable from the Clearing Fund or loans obtained to pay such obligations, and may be so pledged by the corporation to provide for such obligations.

Any interest paid by the depositories on cash in the Clearing Fund or on securities in which the corporation has invested cash in the Clearing Fund shall be payable to the corporation free of any trust as compensation for administration of the Fund. Interest accrued or paid on securities deposited by a Clearing Member in lieu of paying cash shall belong to the Clearing Member so long as the Clearing Member is not in default in any obligation to the corporation.

No depository of cash in the Clearing Fund and no bank or trust company having custody of securities held for purposes of the Clearing Fund shall have any responsibility or liability for application of cash or securities withdrawn by duly authorized officers of the corporation.

For purposes of Sections 8.01 and 8.02, the term “obligations payable from the Clearing Fund” shall include all obligations of such character that will be payable from the Clearing Fund unless otherwise provided for.

Sec. 8.03. If any Clearing Member shall fail to discharge duly any liability to the corporation, the amount of his contribution or so much thereof as is necessary shall forthwith be applied toward the discharge of such liability and such member shall immediately upon demand make good the deficiency in the amount of his contribution resulting from such application.

Sec. 8.04. If the corporation suffers a loss in excess of a Clearing Member contribution to the Clearing Fund by reason of his default, suffers a loss in connection with clearing or settling or carrying out any contract or transaction for its members (including any loss by reason of insolvency of any depository, or larceny or embezzlement of any funds or securities) such excess loss, or such loss, as the case may be, shall to the extent of the earned surplus of the corporation be made good therefrom, but to the extent that said surplus is insufficient, shall be made good out of the Clearing Fund and charged pro rata against the contributions, as fixed at the time of the transaction from which the loss results, of the Clearing Member other than the Clearing Member, if any, primarily liable.

Insofar, however, as a loss sustained through the default of a Clearing Member in any contract or transaction with another Clearing Member or other Clearing Members is under the rules of the corporation made good by such other Clearing Member or Clearing Members, it is not to be deemed loss sustained by the corporation within the meaning of this Section.

Sec. 8.05. Liabilities of the corporation other than liabilities arising out of loss of the character specified in Section 8.04 of this Article shall be payable from any available assets of the corporation other than the Clearing Fund. If the operations of the corporation terminate for any reason amounts in the Clearing Fund in excess of liabilities payable therefrom provided in Section 8.04 shall be returned to the Clearing Members for account of claim creditors, expenses of winding up or otherwise.

¶ 7093

Sec. 8.06. The corporation shall give to each Clearing Member at least 24 hours' notice in writing of any proposed increase in his contribution to the Clearing Fund, specifying the amount and the day and hour when the increase is to be effective. Unless, prior to the time on which the increase is to be effective, the Clearing Member gives written notice to the corporation of his election that it shall definitively cease to act for him, the Clearing Member shall pay the amount of the increase to the corporation not later than the time specified, and the liability of his contribution for losses sustained at and after such time be fixed and determined by the amount of his contribution as increased. If a pro rata charge against any Clearing Member's contribution is made pursuant to the provisions of Section 8.04, he shall forthwith pay or deliver to the corporation such cash and securities as may be necessary to make good the amount of his contribution, and his liability on account of expenses of winding up or otherwise.
