- (1) through (4) No change.
- (5) [Notwithstanding any] In addition to the strike price intervals permitted under other provisions of this paragraph (c), [the interval between] BOX may also list series at $1 strike price[s of series of] intervals for Mini-Nasdaq-100 Index ("MNX" or "Mini-NDX") options [will be $1 or greater], subject to following conditions:
 - (i) Initial Series. BOX may list series at $1 [or greater] strike price intervals for Mini-NDX options, and will list at least two $1 strike prices above and two $1 strike prices below the current value of the MNX at about the time a series is opened for trading on BOX. BOX shall list $1 strike prices for Mini-NDX options that are within 5 points [from] of the closing value of the MNX on the preceding day.
 - (ii) Additional Series. Additional series of the same class of Mini-NDX options may be opened for trading on BOX when BOX deems it necessary to maintain an orderly market, to meet customer demand or when the underlying MNX moves substantially from the initial [exercise] strike price or prices. To the extent that any additional $1 strike prices are listed by BOX, such additional $1 strike prices shall be within thirty percent (30%) above or below the closing value of the MNX. BOX may also open additional $1 strike prices that are more than 30% above or below the current MNX value, provided that demonstrated customer interest exists for such series, as expressed by institutional, corporate or individual customers or their brokers. Market-Makers trading for their own account shall not be considered when determining customer interest under this provision. In addition to the initial listed series, BOX may list up to sixty (60) additional series at $1 strike price intervals per expiration month for each series in Mini-NDX options.
 - (iii) BOX shall not list LEAPS on Mini-NDX options at intervals less than $2.50[5]. BOX may not list strike prices with $1 intervals within $0.50 of an existing $2.50 strike price in the same series.
 - (iv) (A) Delisting Policy. With respect to Mini-NDX options added pursuant to the above paragraphs, BOX will, on a monthly basis, review series that are outside a range of five (5) strikes above and five (5) strikes below the current value of the MNX, and delist series with no open interest in both the put and the call series having a: (i) strike higher than the highest strike price with open interest in the put and/or call series for a given expiration month; and (ii) strike lower than the lowest strike price with open interest in the put and/or call series for a given expiration month.

(B) Notwithstanding the above referenced delisting policy, customer requests to add strikes and/or maintain strikes in Mini-NDX option series eligible for delisting shall be granted.

(C) In connection with the above referenced delisting policy, if BOX identifies series for delisting, BOX shall notify other options exchanges with similar delisting policies regarding eligible series for delisting, and shall work with such other exchanges to develop a uniform list of series to be delisted, so as to ensure uniform series delisting of multiply listed Mini-NDX options.

(d) through (f) No change.
