(“FINRA”) (f/k/a National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (“NASD”)) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC” or “Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II and III below, which Items have been substantially prepared by FINRA. FINRA has designated the proposed rule change as constituting a “non-controversial” rule change under paragraph (f)(6) of Rule 19b-4 under the Act,\(^3\) which renders the proposal effective upon receipt of this filing by the Commission. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

the Commission’s Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, FINRA included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. FINRA has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

As part of the process of developing a new consolidated rulebook (“Consolidated FINRA Rulebook”), FINRA is proposing to transfer NASD Rule 2821 into the Consolidated FINRA Rulebook as FINRA Rule 2330. NASD Rule 2821 establishes sales practice standards regarding recommended purchases and exchanges of deferred variable annuities. The rule has six main sections. First, the rule addresses general considerations, such as the rule’s applicability.
Second, the rule has requirements governing broker recommendations, including suitability and disclosure obligations. Third, the rule includes various principal review and approval

The current FINRA rulebook consists of (1) FINRA Rules; (2) NASD Rules; and (3) rules incorporated from NYSE (“Incorporated NYSE Rules”) (together, the NASD Rules and Incorporated NYSE Rules are referred to as the “Transitional Rulebook”). While the NASD Rules generally apply to all FINRA members, the Incorporated NYSE Rules apply only to those members of FINRA that are also members of the NYSE (“Dual Members”). The FINRA Rules apply to all FINRA members, unless such rules have a more limited application by their terms. For more information about the rulebook consolidation process, see Information Notice, March 12, 2008 (Rulebook Consolidation obligations. Fourth, the rule requires members to establish and maintain supervisory procedures reasonably designed to achieve compliance with the standards set forth in the rule. Fifth, the rule has a training component. Sixth, the rule has a supplementary material section that addresses a variety of issues ranging from the handling of customer funds and checks to information gathering and sharing.

FINRA seeks to transfer this important sales-practice rule, which the Commission only recently approved, into the Consolidated FINRA Rulebook as FINRA Rule 2330 without any substantive changes. Moving the rule into the Consolidated FINRA Rulebook ensures that the rule’s requirements will continue to protect investors and does not impose any significant burden on competition. FINRA notes that FINRA Rule 2330 will apply to broker-dealers in the same manner and to the same extent as NASD Rule 2821.

FINRA has filed the proposed rule change for immediate effectiveness. The implementation date for FINRA Rule 2330 will be February 8, 2010.7

2. Statutory Basis

The proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 15A(b)(6) of the Act, which requires, among other things, that FINRA’s rules must be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. Transferring the rule to the Consolidated FINRA Rulebook is consistent with FINRA’s obligations under the Act because the rule enhances members’ compliance and supervisory systems and provides more comprehensive and targeted protection to investors in deferred variable annuities.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Burden on Competition

FINRA does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not: (i) significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) become operative for 30 days from the date on which it was filed, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate, it has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act\(^9\) and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder.\(^{10}\)

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.
