A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Section 15A(g)(3) of the Act⁸ authorizes FINRA to prescribe standards of training, experience, and competence for persons associated with FINRA members. In accordance with that provision, FINRA has developed examinations that are designed to establish that persons associated with FINRA members have attained specified levels of competence and knowledge, consistent with applicable registration requirements under FINRA rules. FINRA periodically reviews the content of the examinations to determine whether revisions are necessary or appropriate in view of changes pertaining to the subject matter covered by the examinations.

The SEC recently approved a proposed rule change to restructure the FINRA representative-level qualification examination program.⁹ The rule change, which will become effective on October 1, 2018,¹⁰ restructures the examination program into a new format whereby all new representative-level applicants will be required to take a general knowledge examination (the Securities Industry Essentials or SIETM) and a tailored, specialized knowledge examination (a revised representative-level qualification examination) for their particular registered role.

The restructured program eliminates duplicative testing of general securities knowledge on the current representative-level qualification examinations by moving such content into the

⁹ See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 81098 (July 7, 2017), 82 FR 32419 (July 13, 2017) (Order Approving File No. SR-FINRA-2017-007).

¹⁰ See Regulatory Notice 17-30 (SEC Approves Consolidated FINRA Registration Rules, Restructured Representative-Level Qualification Examinations and Changes to Continuing Education Requirements) (October 2017).

SIE examination.¹¹ The SIE examination will test fundamental securities-related knowledge, including knowledge of basic products, the structure and function of the securities industry, the regulatory agencies and their functions and regulated and prohibited practices, whereas the revised representative-level qualification examinations will test knowledge relevant to day-to-day activities, responsibilities and job functions of representatives.¹²

As part of the restructuring process and in consultation with a committee of industry representatives, FINRA undertook a review of the Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representative (Series 6) examination to remove the general securities knowledge currently covered on the examination and to create a tailored examination to test knowledge relevant to the day-to-day activities, responsibilities and job functions of an Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representative. As a result of this review, FINRA also is proposing to revise the Series 6 content outline to reflect changes to the laws, rules and regulations covered by the examination. In addition, FINRA is proposing to make changes to the format of the Series 6 content outline.

Beginning on October 1, 2018, new applicants seeking to register as Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representatives must pass the SIE examination and the revised Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representative (Series 6) examination.

Current Content Outline

¹¹ Each of the current representative-level examinations covers general securities knowledge, with the exception of the Research Analyst (Series 86 and 87) examinations.

¹² FINRA filed the SIE content outline with the SEC for immediate effectiveness. See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 82578 (January 24, 2018), 83 FR 4375 (January 30, 2018) (Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of File No. SR-FINRA-2018-002). In addition to the proposed rule change relating to the revised Series 6 examination, FINRA is filing with the Commission for immediate effectiveness the content outlines for the other revised representative-level qualification examinations.

The current Series 6 content outline is divided into four major job functions that are performed by an Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representative. The following are the four major job functions, denoted Function 1 through Function 4, with the associated number of questions:

Function 1: Regulatory fundamentals and business development, 22 questions;

Function 2: Evaluates customers' financial information, identifies investment objectives, provides information on investment products, and makes suitable recommendations, 47 questions;

Function 3: Opens, maintains, transfers and closes accounts and retains appropriate account records, 21 questions; and Function 4: Obtains, verifies, and confirms customer purchase and sale instructions, 10 questions.

Each function also includes specific tasks describing activities associated with performing that function. There are four tasks (1.1 – 1.4) associated with Function 1; four tasks (2.1 – 2.4) associated with Function 2; three tasks (3.1 – 3.3) associated with Function 3; and two tasks (4.1 – 4.2) associated with Function 4. For example, one such task (Task 2.1) is to gather customers' financial and non-financial information to identify, analyze, and assess risk tolerance, investment experience and sophistication level. Further, the content outline lists the knowledge required to perform each function and associated tasks (e.g., account authorizations and legal documents). In addition, where applicable, the content outline lists the laws, rules and regulations a candidate is expected to know to perform each function and associated tasks. These include applicable federal securities laws, as well as FINRA and other self-regulatory organization rules and regulations. The current content outline also includes a preface (e.g., table of contents, details regarding the purpose of the examination and eligibility requirements), sample questions and reference materials.

Revised Content Outline

As noted above, FINRA is proposing to move the general securities knowledge currently covered on the Series 6 examination to the SIE examination. For example, FINRA Rule 3220 (Influencing or Rewarding Employees of Others) (the Gifts Rule) will now be tested on the SIE examination, rather than on the Series 6 examination. As a result, the revised Series 6 examination will test knowledge specific to the day-to-day activities, responsibilities and job functions of an Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representative.

Further, FINRA is proposing to make changes to the major job functions that are performed by an Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representative. The proposed change aligns the major job functions performed by an Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representative with the major job functions performed by other sales representatives, including General Securities Representatives, Direct Participation Programs Representatives and Private Securities Offerings Representatives. The following are the revised job functions, denoted Function 1 through Function 4, with the associated number of questions:

Function 1: Seeks Business for the Broker-Dealer from Customers and Potential Customers, 12 questions;

Function 2: Opens Accounts After Obtaining and Evaluating Customers' Financial Profile and Investment Objectives, 8 questions;

Function 3: Provides Customers with Information About Investments, Makes Suitable Recommendations, Transfers Assets and Maintains Appropriate Records, 25 questions; and Function 4: Obtains and Verifies Customers' Purchase and Sales Instructions; Processes, Completes and Confirms Transactions, 5 questions.

FINRA also is proposing to adjust the number of questions assigned to each major job function to ensure that the overall examination better reflects the key tasks performed by an Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representative. The questions on the revised Series 6 examination will place emphasis on tasks such as seeking business for the broker-dealer from customers and potential customers, opening customer accounts, providing customers with suitable recommendations and verifying customer agreements and transactions.

Further, FINRA is proposing to make changes to the specific tasks associated with performing each function. There are two tasks (1.1 – 1.2) associated with Function 1;¹³ four tasks (2.1 – 2.4) associated with Function 2;¹⁴ four tasks (3.1 – 3.4) associated with Function 3;¹⁵ and three tasks (4.1 – 4.3) associated with Function 4.¹⁶ For example, one such task (Task 1.1) is contacting current and potential customers in person and by telephone, mail and electronic means, developing promotional and advertising materials and seeking appropriate approvals to distribute marketing materials.¹⁷ The content outline also lists the knowledge required to perform each revised function and associated tasks (e.g., standards and required approvals of communications). In addition, where applicable, the content outline lists the laws, rules and regulations a candidate is expected to know to perform each revised function and associated tasks (e.g., FINRA Rule 2111 (Suitability)).

¹³ See Exhibit 3a, Outline Pages 3-4. The outline is attached as Exhibit 3a to the 19b-4 form.

¹⁴ See Exhibit 3a, Outline Pages 5-6.

¹⁵ See Exhibit 3a, Outline Pages 7-10.

FINRA also is proposing to revise the content outline to reflect changes to the laws, rules and regulations covered by the examination. Among other revisions, FINRA is proposing to revise the content outline to reflect the adoption of new FINRA rules (e.g., FINRA Rule 2273 (Educational Communication Related to Recruitment Practices and Account Transfers)).

FINRA is proposing similar changes to the Series 6 selection specifications and question bank.

Finally, FINRA is proposing to make changes to the format of the content outline, including to the preface, sample questions and reference materials.¹⁸ Among other changes, FINRA is proposing to: (1) reduce the preface to one page of introductory information; (2) streamline details regarding the purpose of the examination; (3) move the application procedures to FINRA's website; and (4) explain that the passing score is established using a standard setting procedure, and that a statistical adjustment process known as equating is used in scoring the examination.¹⁹

¹⁸ FINRA is proposing similar changes to the content outlines for other representative-level examinations.

As a result of the proposed changes, the number of scored questions on the Series 6 examination will be reduced from 100 questions to 50 questions.²⁰ Further, the test time, which is the amount of time candidates will have to complete the examination, will be reduced from two hours and 15 minutes to one hour and 30 minutes. Currently, a score of 70 percent is required to pass the examination. FINRA will publish the passing score of the revised Series 6 examination on its website, at www.finra.org, prior to its first administration.

Availability of Content Outline

The current Series 6 content outline is available on FINRA's website. The revised Series 6 content outline will replace the current content outline on FINRA's website, and it will be made available on the website on the date of this filing.

FINRA is filing the proposed rule change for immediate effectiveness. The implementation date will be October 1, 2018, to coincide with the implementation of the restructured representative-level examination program. FINRA will also announce the implementation date of the proposed rule change in a Regulatory Notice.

2. Statutory Basis

FINRA believes that the proposed revisions to the Series 6 examination program are consistent with the provisions of Section 15A(b)(6) of the Act,²¹ which requires, among other things, that FINRA rules must be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest, and Section 15A(g)(3) of the Act,²² which authorizes FINRA to prescribe standards of training, experience, and competence for persons associated with FINRA members. The proposed rule change will improve the examination program, without compromising the qualification standards, by removing the general knowledge content currently covered on the Series 6 examination, since that content will be covered in the co-requisite SIE examination. In addition, the proposed revisions will further the purposes of the Act by updating the examination program to reflect changes to the laws, rules and regulations covered by the examination.

²⁰ Consistent with FINRA's practice of including "pretest" questions on examinations, the Series 6 examination includes five additional, unidentified pretest questions that do not contribute towards the candidate's score. The pretest questions are designed to ensure that new examination questions meet acceptable testing standards prior to use for scoring purposes. Therefore, the Series 6 examination actually consists of 55 questions, 50 of which are scored. The five pretest questions are randomly distributed throughout the examination.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

FINRA does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act. The updated examination aligns with the functions and associated tasks currently performed by an Investment Company and Variable Contracts Products Representative and tests knowledge of the most current laws, rules, regulations and skills relevant to those functions and associated tasks. As such, the proposed revisions would make the examination more effective. FINRA also provided a detailed economic impact assessment regarding the introduction of the SIE examination and the restructuring of the representative-level examinations as part of the proposed rule change to restructure the FINRA representative-level qualification examination program.²³

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act²⁴ and paragraph (f)(1) of Rule 19b-4 thereunder.²⁵ At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission summarily may temporarily suspend such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.
