

DO NOT APPROVE the NASD proposed rule SR-NASD-2004-183. Do not put an additional burden on me, a variable sales person. Do not put an additional burden on a supervisor that was NOT involved in the sale of product and doesn't have all of the first hand information. Do punish me severely if I have a total disregard for the current regulations and take advantage of my clients. I have many rules and regulation I must follow now to be sure that the sale is right for the client. Once again, DO NOT APPROVE the proposed rule, but vigorously enforce the rules you have on the books now.
