Re: Salomon Smith Barney/WorldCom Claim

Dear Mrs Maguire:

My name is Jerry Anderson and I have a customer dispute either filed, or to be filed, with NASD Dispute Resolution. I have been very concerned with inconsistent results that other investors with my same complaints in arbitrations. It has been impossible for me to understand these disparate awards because the rules allow for arbitrators to remain silent as to reasoning. I am aware that the new proposed Rule would require arbitrators to give explained awards when requested to do so by the claimant. I believe that this is a very important step towards leveling the playing field in NASD arbitration and would encourage the SEC to approve the new Rule. It just makes sense!

I need fairness! This matter has been an uphill battle, to say the least.

Yours truly,

Jerry Anderson
