

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
(Release No. 34-57658; File No. SR-NASDAQ-2008-030)

April 11, 2008

Self-Regulatory Organizations; The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of a Proposed Rule Change to Modify the Charges for Pre-trade Risk Management Workstation Add-ons

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”)¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on April 7, 2008, The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II and III below, which Items have been prepared substantially by Nasdaq. Nasdaq has designated this proposal as one establishing or changing a member due, fee, or other charge imposed by Nasdaq under Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act³ and Rule 19b-4(f)(2) thereunder,⁴ which renders the proposal effective upon filing with the Commission. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

Nasdaq is proposing to adjust the recently-established member charge for the use of PRM Workstation Add-ons. The text of the proposed rule change is available at www.complinet.com/nasdaq, the principal offices of the Exchange, and the Commission’s Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, Nasdaq included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. Nasdaq has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Earlier this year, Nasdaq established the pricing for its new pre-trade risk management (“PRM”) functionality.⁵ Included in the new charges was the fee that PRM Module subscribers that are users of the NASDAQ Workstation or WeblinkACT 2.0 would pay for PRM Workstation Add-ons. At the time, it was envisioned that each subscriber would be able to receive at no charge one PRM Workstation per PRM Module and would pay $100 per month for each additional PRM Workstation per PRM Module.

Nasdaq has since determined that this approach is needlessly cumbersome, costly to administer and potentially confusing to the users. Therefore, Nasdaq has decided to make any needed number of PRM Workstation Add-ons available to users at no charge during the months of April through June 2008, and then, starting in July 2008, to begin charging $100 per month for each PRM Workstation Add-on that users request (thus eliminating the one-free-Add-on-per-module feature). Nasdaq believes that the proposed change is minor, and therefore, the PRM

Workstation Add-on charges remain reasonable and equitably allocated among members that may choose to use this functionality.

2. Statutory Basis

Nasdaq believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 6 of the Act,⁶ in general, and with Section 6(b)(4) of the Act,⁷ in particular, in that it provides for the equitable allocation of reasonable dues, fees and other charges among members and issuers and other persons using any facility or system which Nasdaq operates or controls. The pre-trade management risk functionality provides members with an optional tool at a reasonable cost. Members are not required to use the NASDAQ PRM or PRM Workstation Add-ons. The optional nature of these services and the intensely competitive environment in which they are being offered ensure that the proposed charges will remain market-competitive.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

Nasdaq does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act, as amended.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The foregoing proposed rule change has been designated as a fee change pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act⁸ and Rule 19b-4(f)(2)⁹ thereunder, because it establishes or changes a due, fee, or other charge imposed on members by Nasdaq. Accordingly, the proposal is effective upon filing with the Commission. At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Electronic comments:

- Use the Commission's Internet comment form (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>); or
