Self-Regulatory Organizations; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change by The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC to Remove Rule 6800 from the Nasdaq Rules

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”),¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on September 17, 2008, The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”), filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I and II, which Items have been prepared by Nasdaq. Nasdaq has designated the proposed rule change as constituting a non-controversial rule change under Rule 19b-4(f)(6) under the Act,³ which renders the proposal effective upon filing with the Commission. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

Nasdaq proposes to remove from the Nasdaq rule book Rule 6800 pertaining to Nasdaq’s Mutual Fund Quotation Service (“MFQS”). The Commission recently approved Nasdaq’s proposal to remove MFQS-related rules from the Nasdaq rule book, but reference to Rule 6800 was inadvertently omitted from Nasdaq’s proposal. Nasdaq proposes to implement the proposed rule change immediately.

Nasdaq proposes to delete in its entirety Rule 6800 (titled Mutual Fund Quotation Service), showing this Rule in the rule book as “Reserved.” The text of the proposed rule change is available on NASDAQ’s website (http://nasdaqomx.cchwallstreet.com), at NASDAQ’s principal office, and at the Commission’s Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, Nasdaq included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. Nasdaq has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

The Commission recently approved Nasdaq’s proposal to remove MFQS-related rules from the Nasdaq rule book. In its proposal, Nasdaq stated its view that its rule book should not contain rules that do not pertain to “facilities” of the exchange and that MFQS is not a “facility” within the meaning of the Act. In approving Nasdaq’s proposal, the Commission found, based on representations made by Nasdaq, that MFQS does not appear to be a facility of a national securities exchange.

5 Id.
While Nasdaq’s intent was to remove from its rule book all MFQS-related rules, provisions of Rule 6800, which describe MFQS, were inadvertently omitted from the list of provisions marked for deletion. As a result, the fee-related provisions were removed, but the service description in Rule 6800 remained. Given Nasdaq’s view that its rule book should not contain rules that do not pertain to “facilities” and given that all MFQS fee provisions have already been removed, Nasdaq proposes to delete Rule 6800. This proposal will have the effect of conforming Nasdaq’s rule book to Nasdaq’s stated policy regarding MFQS.6

2. Statutory Basis

Nasdaq believes that MFQS is not a facility of a national securities exchange within the meaning of the Act and the terms of MFQS use are not rules that must be filed with the Commission under Section 19(b)(1) of the Act7 and Rule 19b-4 thereunder.8 Therefore, removing the applicable provisions from the Nasdaq rule book would be consistent with the provisions of Section 6(b) of the Act.9

B. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Burden on Competition

6 As stated in the Commission’s order approving removal of the other MFQS provisions from the rule book, if Nasdaq were to propose to modify the operation of MFQS such that it would fall within the definition of a facility of an exchange in the Act (or to tie MFQS pricing to an exchange activity), Nasdaq would file a proposed rule change with the Commission. Id.

Nasdaq does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act, as amended.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change does not: (i) significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (ii) impose any significant burden on competition; and (iii) become operative for 30 days from the date on which it was filed, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate, it has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act\(^{10}\) and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder.\(^{11}\) Nasdaq has requested that the Commission waive the 30-day pre-operative period for “non-controversial” proposals because removing Rule 6800 from the Nasdaq rule book is consistent with the recently approved removal of other MFQS-related provisions from the rule book. Waiving the 30-day pre-operative period contained in Exchange Act Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii)\(^{12}\) will allow Nasdaq to implement this change without unnecessary delay. In light of the foregoing, the Commission believes that waiver of the 30-day operative delay is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. Accordingly, the Commission has determined to waive the operative delay, and the proposed rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act, and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder, with no operative delay.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Electronic Comments:

- Use the Commission’s Internet comment form (http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml); or
- Send an e-mail to rule-comments@sec.gov. Please include File Number SR-NASDAQ-2008-074 on the subject line.
