(Release No. 34-59415; File No. SR-NYSE-2009-13)

February 18, 2009

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change by New York Stock Exchange LLC Amending Certain NYSE Rules to Reflect that Designated Market Makers on the Exchange No Longer Act as Agents for Orders Entered on the Exchange

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1)¹ of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Act”)² and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,³ notice is hereby given that, on February 4, 2009, New York Stock Exchange LLC (“NYSE” or the “Exchange”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I and II below, which Items have been prepared by the self-regulatory organization. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The Exchange proposes to amend certain NYSE rules to reflect that Designated Market Makers (“DMMs”) on the Exchange will no longer act as agents for orders entered on the Exchange.

The text of the proposed rule change is available at www.nyse.com, the Exchange, and the Commission’s Public Reference Room.

II. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, the self-regulatory organization included statements concerning the purpose of, and basis for, the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of those statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. The Exchange has prepared summaries, set forth in sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant parts of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

Through this filing, the Exchange proposes to amend certain NYSE rules to reflect that the Designated Market Makers (“DMMs”) no longer have agency responsibilities for orders entered on the NYSE Display Book[®] (“Display Book”).⁴

The Exchange notes that parallel changes are proposed to be made to the rules of the NYSE Alternext Exchange (formerly the American Stock Exchange).⁵

Background

On June 12, 2008, the NYSE filed a set of proposed rule changes designed to transform its market structure and reinforce the NYSE as the premier venue for price discovery, liquidity, competitive quotes and price improvement.⁶ That and other filings⁷ formed the core initiatives submitted by the Exchange to reinforce its dynamic and competitive marketplace.

⁴ The Display Book[®] system is an order management and execution facility. The Display Book system receives and displays orders to the DMM, contains the Book, and provides a mechanism to execute and report transactions and publish results to the Consolidated Tape. The Display Book system is connected to a number of other Exchange systems for the purposes of comparison, surveillance, and reporting information to customers and other market data and national market systems.

As outlined in SR-NYSE-2008-46 (the “New Market Model filing”), the changes to the Exchange’s marketplace included the replacement of Exchange specialists with DMMs. The function of the DMM is substantially different from the manner in which specialists functioned vis-à-vis the relationship between Exchange order givers and representation of these orders in the marketplace. DMMs no longer receive copies of orders entered in Exchange systems prior to the orders publication to all market participants by Display Book. Similarly, DMMs do not have a negative obligation which would require the DMM to yield trading for the DMM unit’s proprietary account in order to allow public orders to be executed against each other. DMMs therefore trade on parity with all market participants.

Incoming orders to buy and sell submitted to the Exchange are eligible for automatic quoting and immediate and automatic execution. Instead of the DMM, the NYSE Display Book is responsible for tracking the liquidity available at each specified price point. NYSE systems automatically review the liquidity available on the Display Book for execution and then using sophisticated execution logic access the necessary liquidity to consummate trades. Exchange systems report executions to the entering parties, update the quote and process order cancellations.

⁶ See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 58184 (July 17, 2008), 73 FR 42853 (July 23, 2008) (SR-NYSE-2008-46).

⁷ See for example, Securities Exchange Act Release No. 58052 (June 27, 2008), 73 FR 38274 (July 3, 2008) (SR-NYSE-2008-45) (amending NYSE Rule 98); see also Securities Exchange Act Release No. 58363 (August 14, 2008), 73 FR 49514 (August 21, 2008) (SR-NYSE-2008-52) (amending the NYSE allocation policy).

Although the DMM no longer receives order by order information, he or she is still responsible for the execution of manual transactions on the Exchange including opening and re-opening transactions, closing transactions, block transactions, gap quote situations and when trading reaches LRPs that would lock or cross the market.⁸ DMMs are responsible for choosing the price⁹ and the executions of the orders at that price during those specific situations.

In the current NYSE trading environment, the DMM no longer functions as an agent for orders on the Display Book because the DMM does not control order by order information. As such the Exchange proposes through this filing to amend legacy rules that retain the concept of the Exchange market maker as agent.

Proposed Rule Changes

Certain Exchange rules contain language that refers to the DMM “holding,” “receiving,” and/or “accepting” orders. These concepts were consistent with the role performed by former specialist but are inconsistent with the role of the DMM. The Exchange therefore proposes to amend NYSE Rules 13 (“Definitions of Orders”), 91 (“Taking or Supplying Securities Named in Order”), 123A (“Miscellaneous Requirements”) and 123B (“Exchange Automated Order Routing Systems”) to remove this concept.

⁸ See NYSE Rule 104(a)(2)-(5).

⁹ In an opening and reopening trade, Display Book will verify that all interest that must be executed in the opening or reopening can be executed at the price chosen by the DMM. If all the interest that must be executed in the transaction cannot be executed at that price, the Display Book will block the execution. In addition, when executing blocks (10,000 shares or more or value of $200,000 or more), trading out of a gap quote situation or an LRP that locks or crossed the market, the Display Book may adjust the execution price if there is enough interest on the Display Book to complete the transaction at a better price.

Specifically, the Exchange proposes to delete the Supplementary Material .10 of NYSE Rule 13 in its entirety to remove language that provides a DMM must accept any order given to him, unless he obtains Floor Official approval to decline an order. The Exchange further seeks to remove the phrase “the DMM via”¹⁰ from Supplementary Material .40 of NYSE Rule 91 that governs a DMM making a proprietary trade against an order, but retain the procedural provisions. In Supplementary Material to Rule 123A, the Exchange proposes to delete .10 (“Limited orders-Market orders”) since it speaks to a member giving an order to the DMM. The first paragraph of .20 (“Sending orders to DMMs”) in that rule is proposed for deletion as it governs members and member organizations transmitting orders to DMMs. The Exchange further proposes to amend .20 of NYSE Rule 123A to: (i) delete the concept of orders being sent to the DMMs; and (ii) change the title to “Changes in Day Orders” which reflects the retained material. Similarly, Supplementary Material .31 (“Orders sent to representatives”), .32 (“Report not received”), .33 (“Addressed order or order handed to DMM”), .34 (“Unaddressed order”), .35 (“Erroneous statement”), .36 (“Legibility of orders”), .37 (“Identity of stock”), .38 (“Reports, written and oral”) and .39 (“Duplicate reports”) of NYSE Rule 123A are proposed for deletion as they speak to transmitting or giving orders to DMMs, DMMs receiving orders, DMMs giving reports on orders, and similar provisions.

In addition, the Exchange proposes to delete NYSE Rule 123B(b)(2)(B) because it speaks of orders received by the DMM through the Designated Order Turnaround System and to erroneous reports sent by the DMM on executions. These functions are no longer handled in this manner. As previously explained, order acceptance and reports of executions are handled by Exchange systems. The Exchange also proposes to delete NYSE Rule 123B(d) because it describes orders being sent to and executed by the DMM.

The Exchange also proposes to amend paragraph (2)(A) of Rule 123B(b) to have it apply to all members if the member makes an erroneous report of the price of a transaction, by substituting the word “member” for the word “broker” in the rule. This will then include situations in which a DMM makes an erroneous report as to price on a transaction.

NYSE Rule 92(d)(6) (“Limitations on Members’ Trading Because of Customers’ Orders”) is further proposed for deletion as it restricts DMM proprietary trading during the hours the Exchange is closed. The restriction was predicated on the former specialist system where the specialist had knowledge of customer orders in his or her possession. The restriction is obviated by the fact that the DMM no longer “holds” customer orders. Nevertheless, as members, DMMs will continue to be subject to the rule’s general prohibition. Similarly, the last sentence of NYSE Rule 127(d)(3) (“Block Crosses Outside the Prevailing NYSE Quotation”) is proposed for deletion because it also is predicated on the DMM retaining stock for the DMM’s own account at a price at which the DMM “holds” unexecuted customer orders.¹¹

The Exchange believes that the amendments proposed herein to remove legacy rule language that is inconsistent with the role of the DMM as approved by the Commission in the New Market Model filing are necessary to adequately reflect the functions performed by the DMM.

¹¹ See February 13th e-mail, supra, note 10.

2. Statutory Basis

The Exchange believes that its proposal is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Act”),¹² in general, and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(5) of the Act,¹³ in particular, in that it is designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, to remove impediments to and perfect the mechanism of a free and open market and a national market system, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. The Exchange believes the proposed rule changes are consistent with these principles in that it amends legacy rules to accurately reflect the role performed by the Exchange’s market maker thus removing impediments to and perfecting the mechanism of a free and open market.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Burden on Competition

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule change will impose any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

No written comments were solicited or received with respect to the proposed rule change.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

Because the foregoing proposed rule change: (1) does not significantly affect the protection of investors or the public interest; (2) does not impose any significant burden on competition; and (3) by its terms, does not become operative for 30 days after the date of filing, or such shorter time as the Commission may designate if consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest, the proposed rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A) of the Act¹⁴ and Rule 19b-4(f)(6) thereunder.¹⁵

A proposed rule change filed under Rule 19b-4(f)(6) normally does not become operative for 30 days after the date of filing.¹⁶ However, Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii) permits the Commission to designate a shorter time if such action is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. The Exchange requested that the Commission waive the 30-day operative delay and designate the proposed rule change operative upon filing.

The Commission believes that waiving the 30-day operative delay is consistent with the protection of investors and the public interest. The proposed rule change seeks to remove legacy language that is inconsistent with the role performed by DMMs as approved by the Commission in the New Market Model filing.¹⁷ Furthermore, it seeks to clarify its rule text in order to avoid any undue confusion on the part of Exchange market

¹⁵ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6).

¹⁶ 17 CFR 240.19b-4(f)(6)(iii). In addition, Rule 19b-4(f)(6)(iii) requires the self-regulatory organization to give the Commission notice of its intent to file the proposed rule change, along with a brief description and text of the proposed rule change, at least five business days prior to the date of filing of the proposed rule change, or such shorter time as designated by the Commission. NYSE has satisfied this requirement.

¹⁷ See supra note 6.

participants as it relates to the function performed by DMMs. Therefore, the Commission designates the proposal operative upon filing.¹⁸

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.¹⁹

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views, and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Electronic Comments:

- Use the Commission's Internet comment form (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>); or
- Send an e-mail to rule-comments@sec.gov. Please include File Number SR-NYSE-2009-13 on the subject line.

Paper Comments:

- Send paper comments in triplicate to Elizabeth M. Murphy, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street, NE, Washington, DC 20549-1090.

All submissions should refer to File Number SR-NYSE-2009-13. This file number should be included on the subject line if e-mail is used. To help the Commission process

¹⁸ For purposes only of waiving the operative delay for this proposal, the Commission has considered the proposed rule's impact on efficiency, competition, and capital formation. See 15 U.S.C. 78c(f).
