Rule 5290 – NYSE Amex Equities. Order Entry and Execution Practices

No member, member organization or associated person shall engage in conduct that has the intent or effect of splitting any order into multiple smaller orders for execution or any execution into multiple smaller executions for transaction reporting for the primary purpose of maximizing a monetary or in-kind amount to be received by the member, member organization or associated person as a result of the execution of such orders or the transaction reporting of such executions. For purposes of this Rule, “monetary or in-kind amount” shall be defined to include, but not be limited to, any credits, commissions, gratuities, payments for or rebates of fees, or any other payments of value to the member, member organization or associated person.

••• Supplementary Material: -----

.01 “Associated person.” For the purposes of this rule, the term “associated person” shall have the same meaning as the terms "person associated with a member" or "associated person of a member" as defined in Article I (rr) of the FINRA By-Laws.
