

Robert V. Deere

Bob Deere is Vice President of Accounting and Reporting for Royal Dutch Shell plc. Having served in this position or its predecessor since 2003, he is responsible for the financial policies and reporting of the Shell Group. The Shell Group of Companies is a worldwide group of oil, gas and petrochemical companies with operations in more than 130 countries. Shell also has interests in biofuels, wind and solar power and hydrogen.

Previous to being appointed to his present position, he served as Controller for the U.S. E&P operations of the Group. Prior to joining Shell, he had held various positions with Union Texas Petroleum, an independent international oil and gas company and Price Waterhouse.