CPA

Audit Partner

Christopher Craig is an Audit Partner in Grant Thornton's New York Cluster which includes four offices located in New York City (Midtown and Downtown); Melville, New York; and Edison, New Jersey. He has more than 11 years of experience in public accounting.

Experience

Christopher has worked on multi-national clients, both publicly traded and non-public corporations, within a wide range of industries. He has experience in a full range of assurance services, from audit services to initial public offerings, private placements and due diligence engagements and assisting foreign private issuers with their US SEC filings.

Christopher participated in the Grant Thornton (United States) international exchange program to Australia and assisted Australian clients with US Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, and SEC financial reporting requirements. More recently, Christopher participated in a rotation from the New York Office of Grant Thornton to the London Office where he supported audit and non-audit clients on financial reporting matters, including financial statement conversions to International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"), financial statement conversions from local accounting standards to Generally Accepted Accounting Standards in the United States of America, and compliance with SEC reporting matters.
