

Robert Schifellite
President of Investor Communication Solutions
Broadridge Financial Solutions

Bob Schifellite is President of Investor Communication Solutions (“ICS”) of Broadridge Financial Solutions, formerly ADP, Inc. Broadridge-ICS specializes in providing proxy and other shareowner communications services for 14, 000 publicly held companies in North America and over 36,000 companies worldwide on behalf of 800 banks and brokers.

As President of ICS, Bob’s role is responsible for its financial and operational results, leading over 1,000+ associates, establishing a “World Class Employer” culture, and bringing new products into the marketplace.

Prior to joining ADP, Bob was Senior Vice President and Chief Operating Officer at the Independent Election Corporation of America. Prior to his experience in the proxy business, Bob was a Senior Manager in the financial analysis group at NYNEX and was a Senior Auditor with Deloitte & Touche. Bob is a Certified Public Accountant and has earned a business degree in accounting and an MBA in Finance from Hofstra University. He is on the board of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation.