

Veronica O'Neill
Vice President
Merrill Lynch

Veronica (Ronnie) O'Neill is currently Vice President in charge of Proxy Services for Merrill Lynch, and has managed all aspects of the proxy process including systems, voting, processing and mutual funds operations over the past 20 years. She is a former Director of the SIA Proxy Division, and is currently a member of the SIFMA Corporate Actions Division Proxy Overvote Committee, and the SIA Securities Operations Division Proxy Overvote Committee. She holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the College of the Holy Cross, and a Master of Business Administration in Accounting from Fairleigh Dickinson University.