

Thomas M. Selman

Thomas M. Selman is Executive Vice President, Investment Companies/Corporate Financing at NASD Regulation. Tom Selman joined NASD Regulation, Inc. in September 1996 as Director of the Advertising/Investment Companies Regulation Department. Prior to that time, he was Associate Counsel to the Investment Company Institute. From 1987 until 1992, Tom served in the SEC's Office of the General Counsel and from 1986 until 1987, he served as consultant to the European Union in Brussels, Belgium.

Tom is the author of several articles, including "Regulating Mutual Fund Distributors: Is the Traditional Definition of 'Broker-Dealer' Obsolete?" Investment Lawyer, April 1998; "Model for Reform: The Offer and Sale of UCITS in the United States," The International Lawyer, Fall 1992.