Timothy P. Flynn was elected Chairman and Chief Executive of KPMG LLP, the Big Four public accounting firm that provides audit, tax, and advisory services, in June 2005. KPMG LLP is the U.S. member firm of KPMG International. KPMG International’s member firms have nearly 100,000 professionals in 148 countries.

A 26-year veteran of the firm, Tim started his career in KPMG’s Minneapolis office in 1979. He has held a number of key leadership positions throughout the firm, providing him with a unique perspective on the issues facing major companies and the evolving business environment, and he continues to serve as client service partner for several of KPMG’s largest clients.

Tim most recently served as Vice Chair, Audit & Risk Advisory Services, for KPMG LLP, with operating responsibility for the Audit practice, as well as the Risk Advisory and Financial Advisory Services practices. Prior to that, he served as Vice Chair, Human Resources.

He has also served as Global Managing Partner – Audit for KPMG International. In that role, he chaired the Global Audit Steering Group, and was a member of KPMG International’s international executive team.

As Chairman, Tim is dedicated to professional excellence and to creating a values-driven culture that helps fulfill KPMG’s “Promise of Professionalism” to its people, clients, and the capital markets.

Tim is a board member as well as treasurer of the Partnership for New York City and is also a member of the Carnegie Hall Board of Trustees. Tim serves on the boards of trustees of the Financial Accounting Foundation and the University of St. Thomas as well as the University’s College of Business Strategic Board of Governors. He is a member of the Committee to Encourage Corporate Philanthropy and the Business Roundtable.

Tim holds a bachelor’s degree in accounting from The University of St. Thomas, St. Paul, Minnesota.
