

Garrett L. Stauffer
Senior Partner, National Risk & Quality Practice
PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP

Gary is a Senior Partner in the National Risk & Quality Practice and is responsible for the design and development of PwC's programs and thought leadership regarding internal control over financial reporting. He is also responsible for PwC's Corporate Governance Practice, which designs and develops corporate governance programs and thought leadership. He has over 34 years of experience working with board and audit committee governance matters.

Gary has extensive experience in dealing with large multinational corporations where he has served as the Lead Engagement Partner. He was the Chair of the Auditing Standards Board Task Force on Internal Control Reporting.