

Jay L. Haberland
Vice President of Business Controls
United Technologies Corporation

Jay L. Haberland is Vice President of Business Controls at United Technologies Corporation. He was previously chief financial officer at Sikorsky Aircraft Corporation, a multibillion-dollar subsidiary of UTC. He has also served as acting CFO, vice president-controller, and director of internal audit at United Technologies.

Prior to his appointments at UTC, Mr. Haberland held a variety of senior finance positions at the Black & Decker Corporation. He began his career with Price Waterhouse in Boston and later, Hartford. He earned a bachelor's degree from Alfred University and a master's degree from Northeastern University. Mr. Haberland is a certified public accountant, Commonwealth of Massachusetts. He currently serves on the Boards of the Mark Twain House and Museum, Alfred University and the University of Connecticut Health Center.