

John J. Huber

Contact Information

Tel: +1 (202) 637-2242
E-mail: john.huber@lw.com

Education

LL.M. (Tax), Georgetown University, 1978

J.D., University of Wisconsin, 1974
cum laude

B.A., University of Wisconsin, 1968
with honors

Bar Qualifications

Mr. Huber is qualified to practice before the Wisconsin and District of Columbia bars.

Areas of Expertise

John Huber is the former Director of the SEC's Division of Corporation Finance which is responsible for administering the federal securities laws relating to public offerings, private placements, periodic reporting by public companies, tender offers and proxy contests. During his 11 years at the SEC, he was the primary draftsman of the first permanent tender offer rules and the going-private rule and was in charge of the Division's rulemaking program for, among other things, the integrated disclosure and shelf registration rules. He also participated in drafting of financial statement requirements of Regulation S-X. As Director and Deputy Director of the Division from 1981 through 1986, he was responsible for the SEC's review process for public offerings and disclosure documents by public companies with particular emphasis on financial statement and accounting issues.

Since joining Latham & Watkins in 1986, he has specialized in public offerings and private placements of debt and equity securities as well as tender offers and mergers. He has also represented clients in proceedings with the SEC's Division of Enforcement, including matters involving financial statement and accounting issues.

He has served as Chairman of the ABA's Task Force on Regulation FD and the Chairman of the ABA's Subcommittee on Securities Registration. In addition, he has been a member of the Legal Advisory Board of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. and is currently a member of the NASDR's Corporate Financing Committee. He is a frequent speaker at securities law seminars.

Partner,
Corporate Department,
Washington, D.C.