

RON LALONDE
Senior Executive Vice-President and Chief
Administrative Officer for CIBC

Ron Lalonde is the Senior Executive Vice-President and Chief Administrative Officer for CIBC, with overall responsibility for corporate controls, legal and compliance, corporate communications, corporate real estate, internal audit and corporate security, human resources and other global support functions. He is also the Chief Privacy Officer for CIBC.

Ron joined the bank in 1987 as an equity research analyst. Since then, he has taken on increasingly senior roles in the equities business, finance and infrastructure positions and international line management. Ron joined the Senior Executive Team of CIBC in his current position in 1999.