

Frank Hodge

Assistant Professor of Accounting
Lane A. Daley Faculty Fellow
University of Washington Business School

Professor Hodge has been Assistant Professor of accounting at the University of Washington Business School since 2002. His research focuses on financial reporting and financial statement analysis, with an emphasis on how individuals make investment decisions using accounting information.

Professor Hodge earned a BA at Carroll College in 1988, an MBA at Indiana University in 1996, and was awarded his PhD at Indiana University in 2000. A list of his publications, working papers, honors and awards is available at <http://bschool.washington.edu/faculty/z.asp?ID=28>.